This past year has been like none other. As the Jewish Federation of Greater Portland celebrated its 100th year our world was turned upside-down by COVID-19. The pandemic spread and caused “shelter in place” orders from the Governor, unemployment was at an all-time high, and our economy was impacted greatly.

As we have done for the past 100 years, our Jewish Federation is here for you. As part of our total resources of $4.6 million, our community generously contributed $900,000 to provide emergency financial assistance and mental health resources to those impacted, as well as financial support for Jewish organizations across the state. This is all powered by your ongoing generosity. We should take great pride in our community’s immediate response to the pandemic. And even more proud of the resilience of our Jewish community institutions and their leadership.

When we come together, great things happen. Thank you for your unwavering support, partnership, and belief in the work we are doing on behalf of our Jewish community.

Looking forward to serving our community for the next 100 years.

BEFORE THE PANDEMIC STRUCK

and our world shifted, we were busy celebrating our centennial year and supporting a vibrant, caring and enduring Jewish Greater Portland.

Comedy night brought together more than 70 young adults between the ages of 21 and 45 for an evening of laughs with new friends — all thanks to the hilariously honest Ester Steinberg Gardenswartz.

More than 400 parents, students and educators participated in three fall workshops focused on understanding and combating antisemitism.

15 young adults participated in Cohort 4 of PDX Pathways, learning about our Jewish community and meeting in small mentor groups before completing their experience with a video project.

350 women attended IMPACT and heard from author Irin Carmon about her book Notorious RBG: The Life and Times of Ruth Bader Ginsburg.

130 major donors attended Cornerstone with James Beard Award winning chef Michael Solomonov.

300 community members heard Amb. Dennis Ross speak at Federation’s annual Gala.

But then, everything changed and as the normal disappeared, WE DISCOVERED THE ESSENTIAL.
ESSENTIAL FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Federation partnered with the Oregon Jewish Community Foundation to spearhead fundraising for the COVID-19 crisis campaign, raising $900,000 dollars to provide emergency financial assistance and mental health resources to those impacted, as well as financial support for Jewish organizations across the state.

“With the assistance of the community crisis campaign, JFCS has been able to provide an expanded level of emergency financial assistance and mental health support to some of our community’s most vulnerable members.”

— Jewish Family and Child Service

“While most organizations busied themselves with maintaining their very survival, the Jewish Federation managed to successfully launch and implement a number of programs that serve as a safety net and aid the Portland Jewish community as a whole.

They provided the Portland Kollel with invaluable resources to allow us to weather the storm of the pandemic. We feel indebted to their leadership and generosity at this time.

The Jewish Federation of Greater Portland has risen to the task of outstanding leadership that is essential for the continuity of this Jewish community. We are very thankful for their selfless and tireless efforts.”

— Rabbi Chanan Spivak, Rabbi Tzvi Fischer & the Portland Kollel Staff
ESSENTIAL SHABBAT CONNECTION

More than 800 households participated in four different virtual Unity Shabbat candle lightings during the first several months of the pandemic.

"The work Federation is doing to foster community at this time is truly making a difference. The Unity Shabbat program was a fantastic show of that — the sense of warmth and community connection was palpable.

It was very obvious people needed this opportunity to connect and ‘see’ one another. I loved how so many people (my family included) stayed online continuing to call out to and greet one another even after the official program was over. I feel proud to be part of this community."

― Jaimie Harper, community member
ESSENTIAL PERSONAL CONNECTION

More than 1,800 senior households received a reassurance phone call from a community volunteer.

120 community members volunteered through Federation’s volunteer match program totaling more than 580 volunteer hours.

“Even in this terrible situation that we are in, I’ve been able to make a new friend and form a new relationship. Even if it’s just through shopping and a phone call once or twice a week, I’ve made a connection that I never would have made before.”

— Rich Meyer, community volunteer
ESSENTIAL JOY

Federation organized an April car parade with Cedar Sinai Park to greet residents and thank essential workers. Over 100 cars came out with signs and smiles.

“Thank you for the wonderful opportunity today to participate in the car parade at Cedar Sinai Park! What a great mitzvah day! In the car on the way home, Lizzie, my 8 year-old, said, ‘That felt good to make people happy. That was a true Mitzvah!’ Ali, my 13 year old, said, ‘That was awesome! My mouth hurts from smiling so hard.’ So much joy!”

— Michelle Koplan, Executive Director, B’nai B’rith Camp

“The residents loved seeing family members and enjoying the beautiful day.”

— Nancy Heckler, Adult Day Services Director, Cedar Sinai Park
ESSENTIAL INFORMATION

From April to July, Federation hosted 11 Weekly Wednesday virtual programs and reached more than 2,250 people. Speakers and topics ran the gamut and allowed community members to learn about current events, or practice mindfulness, in community with others yet without needing to leave the safety of our homes.
