

Harrisburg JCC 5K Attains Record Turnout

Perfect weather, excited participants and caring volunteers - all are great descriptors of the Harrisburg JCC's recent 5K run/walk. The annual race, hosted by the Sports and Fitness Department which benefits the department as well as the Josh Klein Bikkur Cholim Society, was held on Sunday, September 29. "The day was perfect. We had a great turnout, and people truly enjoyed themselves," stated Sports & Fitness Director Terri Travers.

Over 210 people registered for the annual race, up from 165 participants last year. The race featured a variety of runners and walkers covering a large span of age groups and exercise levels. Travers continued, "We had soccer teams and their families, our GoGirlGo participants, and senior citizens. We had serious runners who have been hitting the pavement for years, and we had those who recently completed the Couch to 5K program offered by Absolute Wellness Group who completed their first race. It makes for an awesome atmosphere."

20 Girls from the Harrisburg JCC's GoGirlGo program completed the 5K. The girls were part of a 3-month-long program that is sponsored by the Women's Sports Foundation that combines exercise with conversation on social and health risks that girls encounter in their lives. Second grader Morgan Wiener said, "I really like running with my friends. My whole family did the race this year and we had fun."

Top finisher in this year's race was 15-year-old Nathaniel Goodyear who completed the route in 19:47. Second place went to Scott Cooper, and Gary Grobman rounded out the top three. In the women's competition, first place went to Isabella Bien followed by Patty Schwab and Samantha Grub. Top GoGirlGo finishers were Sophie Shienvold, Maddie Cohen, Erin Brodsky and Hannah Alder.

Rebecca Doctrow, JCC aquatics director, recently completed the Absolute Wellness Group's Couch to 5K program and was thrilled to run her first 5K. "It's great to see people of all ages and abilities come out for the race. I loved having people at many of the turns shouting encouragement, as well as the group of people who stuck around at the finish line to cheer as later runners and walkers came in," said Doctrow.

After the race, the participants were treated to bagels and donuts and drinks. Bottled water was donated by W&L Sales, and The Silver Academy provided fruit. Gary Klein spoke about his family's story, and Sammy Schwab also spoke about the importance of the race and how it benefits Josh Klein Bikkur Cholim. Schwab stated, "I loved helping the Kleins and telling people about the race. I got a lot of my friends and teammates to run and I was so proud."

AMERICAN RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE PLEASE DONATE!!!

The JCC will be having another American Red Cross Blood Drive on Wednesday, December 4, 2013 from 2:00 to 7:00PM in the Mary Sachs Auditorium. The Red Cross provides over 40% of the blood needs in the United States; responds to disasters both large and small; helps members of the military, veterans and their families; and teaches lifesaving skills. Maintaining sufficient blood to meet patient needs is a delicate balance between supply and demand. In addition to disaster-related blood needs, the Red Cross must collect enough blood each and every day to help accident victims, cancer patients, surgical candidates, children with blood disorders and others. The Northeastern Pennsylvania region is responsible for collecting 102, 000 units of life saving blood in the coming fiscal year. To meet the needs of patients in hospitals that the region serves, over 400 units of blood must be collected daily. "Critical type" blood needed are O, A negative and B negative donors, whose blood is frequently in high demand by hospitals, but oftentimes is in short supply. There is a particular need for type O negative blood. All blood types can receive type O negative red blood cells. That's why it's used in emergencies when there is no time to determine the blood type of the patient. Please help by donating blood if you can. For a specific time to come in, call Cheryl Yablon, 236-9555, ext. 3115. Drop-ins are welcome.

Hadassah Israel State Dinner Will Honor Ed and Esther Beck for Work in the Harrisburg Jewish Community and Features Leader of Hadassah in Israel

The Northern Seaboard Region of Hadassah, which includes Harrisburg, York, Lancaster and Lebanon chapters is sponsoring a state dinner on October 16 in honor of Esther and Ed Beck's commitment to the Jewish community. The dinner will be held at the Main State Capitol Rotunda and feature Barbara Goldstein, Deputy Executive Director of Hadassah's office in Israel.

"We are thrilled to honor the many commitments of Ed and Esther Beck to the Jewish community," said Shari Dym, dinner chairwoman. "Esther and Ed have worked tirelessly with local Jewish community programs along with national efforts. It's such a pleasure to work with people who are so dedicated to making a difference."

Shari, who has known Barbara for several years, said she is honored to have her friend at the dinner and was fortunate enough to see her earlier this year in Israel when her son, Ari, had his bar mitzvah there.

Esther and Ed Beck have been active members of the Harrisburg Jewish community for many years. Esther serves as Treasurer of the Hadassah – Harrisburg Chapter – and a former president. Ed is editor/publisher of popular online Jewish community newsletter Kol Harrisburg and is the international vice president of ZAKA, Israel's international first response group prepared for both natural and man-made disasters.

Together they have participated in many Jewish community efforts such as the Yeshiva Administration & Operations Committee, the United Jewish Community of Harrisburg, Jewish Federation of Greater Harrisburg, Jewish Family Services in Harrisburg and the Harrisburg Hebrew School of Hershey.

Ed and Esther founded Scholars for Peace in the Middle East, an organization that combats boycott activities against Israeli academics.

"We feel incredibly honored to receive this recognition from Hadassah," Esther said. "We feel we have been truly blessed with the opportunity to serve our Jewish community." Ed added: "We live in such a special community and are humbled with this honor, but are proud to be able to be supportive of the important humanitarian, educational, research and leadership work of Hadassah in this way."

For more information about attending the dinner, please contact Cynthia Sussman at csussman12@aol.com or by phone at 232-9739.

JFS Annual Meeting Featured Leadership Past, Present and Future

The September Jewish Family Service Annual Meeting at the JCC was festive and meaningful. Rabbi Joseph Gewirtz, past JFS Board Member, gave a thoughtful D'var Torah connecting the holiday of Sukkot with the everyday work in the trenches that JFS does. Neil Weber, a JFS past president, installed the officers and board. Two presidential appointees, Aviv Bliwas and Sheri Solomon, moved into elected positions. Ruth Kurtz was welcomed to the Board as well as Vivian Blanc, a new presidential appointee. Supporters and Friends of JFS came out to applaud Merv Isaacman and Steven Rosenberg for their volunteer work for JFS.

Installation of Board Past is a Harrisburg native and is very familiar with JFS programs. She says "I hope to use my professional experience to enrich and expand upon the invaluable services that JFS already offers."

Ruth Kurtz joins the board with financial expertise. She is an Enrolled Agent with Klingler and Associates, P.C., a certified public accounting firm. Ruth is licensed to practice before the Internal Revenue Service and a Certified QuickBooks ProAdvisor. Ruth was the financial manager for her family construction business for over 20 years. When asked about her interest in the JFS board, Ruth replied that her passion for JFS pertains to senior services because she dealt with such issues with her parents.

Jewish Family Service's board reflects many areas of interest and expertise. We look forward to the addition of new voices to our board leadership.

Our two new board members, Vivian Blanc and Ruth Kurtz, have professional expertise as well as a strong commitment to the programs and values of Jewish Family Service.

Vivian is a Licensed Professional Counselor and has been working in the mental health arena for almost twenty years. Vivian is currently in private practice at Blanc Counseling Services in Wormleysburg, PA and is a member of the National Board of Certified Counselors. She has extensive training in many issues, including compulsive gambling, refugee mental health, marriage and family counseling. Vivian

FEDERATION STAFF PARTICIPATES IN DAY OF CARING

On Friday, October 4th, several members of the Federation staff participated in a Day of Caring at the JCC. They performed miscellaneous tasks in and around the building, such as cleaning out storage rooms, sprucing up signs outside the building, and weeding and pruning around the grounds. The idea was sparked by the concept already in practice by many companies in the Central Pennsylvania area, and elsewhere, where their employees donate a day of their time providing community service to various organizations. Despite the hard work, the general consensus among the staff was that it was time well spent.

Kesher Israel Congregation Welcomes Torah Tours to Harrisburg

By Rabbi Akiva Males

The conclusion of the holiday of Sukkos at KI was greatly enhanced by the presence of six energetic college students (three young men along with three young women) who joined our congregation through Yeshiva University's Torah Tours program.

Now in its third decade, the Aaron and Blanche Schreiber Torah Tours program shares the Torah knowledge and enthusiasm of Yeshiva University students with Jewish communities throughout the world. During the holiday celebration of Simchas Torah, teams of four to six young men and women visit communities across the United States, Canada, and Europe to teach Torah classes, lead singing and dancing, meet with synagogue youth, and create a fun and spirited Yom Tov experience.

Aside from providing a wonderful amount of liveliness to KI's services, the Torah Tours team did an excellent job at preparing and delivering thoughtful words of Torah at several of KI's programs. The students also did a great job at interacting with everyone in the congregation. The positive feedback has been phenomenal.

Kesher Israel Congregation sincerely thanks:

- Yeshiva University for their ongoing commitment to be of service to our congregation
- The Frankston-Morris-Gasner, Powers, Salkin, and Males families for housing and hosting our Torah Tours team

Temple Ohev Sholom Sisterhood to feature Russ & Daughters at Symons/Rose Annual Book Review Thursday, October 24th

What better way to enjoy lox and bagel than to join Temple Ohev Sholom Sisterhood Thursday evening, October 24th. Why? Because the 2013 Symons/Rose Annual Book Review will feature Russ & Daughters, Reflections and Recipes From the House That Herring Built.

Author Mark Russ Federman, grandson of the founder of Russ & Daughters--an established "Appetizing" shop in the Lower East Side--will share his humorous and mouthwatering story of an immigrant family's journey from pushcart in 1907, to what the New York Times Magazine calls "New York's most hallowed shrine to the miracle of caviar, smoked salmon, ethereal herring and silken chopped liver."

Federman recalls how his impoverished grandfather, Joel, arrived from Poland and began peddling herring from a pushcart before opening a storefront in 1914. Joel's three daughters eventually came to work in the shop and, in 1935, the shop became known as Russ & Daughters.

The ups and downs of running a business in the gritty Lower East side of Manhattan are beautifully covered by Federman, who attended Georgetown Law School and planned to flee the family business when he was called back to "help out a bit." "The first day I took up my place behind the counter was the last day I practiced law," he recalls.

A themed reception, "The Whole Schmeer" is scheduled at 6:30 p.m. featuring "appetizing" specialties, as well as prepared recipes from the book. Reservations for this culinary experience are a must.

The author's lecture begins at 8:00 p.m., and is open to the community. Dessert and book signing at 9:00 p.m.

For more information on this delightful and delicious evening, contact Fern at 717-571-9758 or Gail at 717-566-9470 or www.ohavsholom.org.
