"Jewish Soldiers in Blue and Gray"

Brother against brother, Jew against Jew, 10,000 Jewish soldiers fought in the nation's deadliest war. Some prominent Jews, including Jewish slave owners, cited the Torah to justify slavery, while others led the abolitionist movement or established their synagogues as stops on the Underground Railroad. This documentary unreels remarkable little-known history, including Ulysses S. Grant's infamous order expelling Jews from several states; the rise of Judah Benjamin to Secretary of State of the Confederacy; and the story of Abraham Lincoln's Jewish doctor who moved through the South as a Union spy. (86 min.)

Film Free ... Optional lunch at 1 p.m., $6. Movie begins at 1:45
