

We decided to participate in the Life and Legacy program because it was a way of giving back to school and a community that has already given our family so much. It is a way to help ensure school continues to support generations to come with the level of excellence our children receive now.

- Doree Kovalio & Kevin Evoy