

A COOKING LESSON IN LEADERSHIP

Tour the Tastes & Cultures of Yemen &
Morocco with Chef Revi Catriel

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 19

5:30 TO 8:30 PM

MANDELL JCC INNOVATION CENTER

335 Bloomfield Avenue, West Hartford

Vegetarian menu | Laws of kashrut observed

Tools & ingredients provided

$36 per person | Limited to 24 participants

Vision, discipline, creativity and adaptability: these are key traits that great cooks and great leaders share. Explore Yemeni and Moroccan cuisine and experience the leadership lessons of cooking firsthand. We'll enjoy appetizers and a demo, then take part in a Chopped style cooking competition.

RSVP by February 11 to Deb Howson
info@jlahartford.org | 860.727.6103

Please mention any food allergies

ABOUT CHEF REVI

Chef Revital "Revi" Catriel uses her rich background as a Yemenite-Israeli immigrant to share the culture and spices of the Mediterranean and North Africa through her catering and culinary educational venture, Revi's Mediterranean & Middle Eastern Cuisine. Growing up, there was always something colorful cooking in the kitchen. Chef Revi enjoys bringing her expertise to those who share her passion for food, culture and Israel. You can learn more about her at www.revisfood.com.

