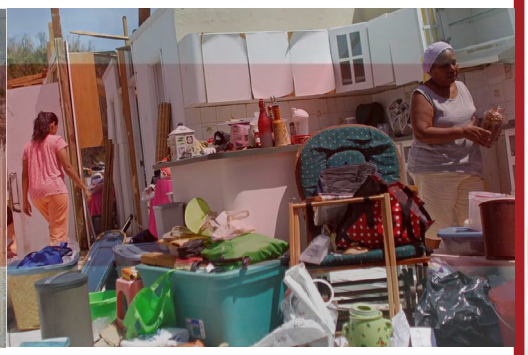
HELP OUR NEW NEIGHBORS FILL THEIR SHELVES!

FOOD DRIVE

FOR PUERTO RICAN HURRICANE VICTIMS

JANUARY 8 THROUGH FEBRUARY 9, 2018



Thousands of Puerto Rican and other Caribbean refugees are arriving in Hartford fleeing the devastation of Hurricane Maria. More than 1300 have already arrived - and they need our help to start a new life. The Jewish Community Relations Council of Greater Hartford is partnering with local synagogues and Jewish agencies on a food drive.

WHAT IS NEEDED

Please donate the following unopened, unexpired food items:

- Grace or Goya brand products including bags of rice, bags of beans, and cans of tomato sauce or tomato paste
- Spices and seasonings including sugar, salt, adobo, sazón and garlic powder
- Cereal: all Kellogg's brand cereals, Cheerios, Cream of Wheat and Quaker Oats
- Coffee or juice including Bustelo, Pilon or Maxwell brand coffee and Capri Sun brand juice drink

DROPBOX LOCATIONS

Drop off your donations by Friday, February 9 to a participating synagogue, school or agency:

- Anja Rosenberg Kosher Food Pantry
- The Bess and Paul Sigel Hebrew Academy
- Beth David Synagogue
- Beth El Temple
- Beth Sholom B'nai Israel
- B'nai Tikvoh Shalom
- Chabad House of Greater Hartford
- Congregation Beth Israel
- Congregation Kol Haverim
- The Emanuel Synagogue
- Farmington Valley Jewish Congregation - Emek Shalom
- Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford
- Mandell Jewish Community Center
- Solomon Schechter Day School
- Temple Beth Hillel
- Temple Sinai
- Young Israel of West Hartford

Donations will be distributed by the Centro de Ayuda Para Nuestros Amigos Caribeños (Relief Center for our Caribbean Friends) in Hartford, managed by the Capitol Region Education Council (CREC).

Questions?
Please contact Alana Butler at 860-727-6152
or abutler@jewishhartford.org.

Jewish Federation OF GREATER HARTFORD
WWW.JEWISHHARTFORD.ORG

JEWISH COMMUNITY RELATIONS COUNCIL