

IMPACT+INFLUENCE: THE FRANK STAVIS LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

“In a gentle way, you can shake the world.”

— Mahatma Gandhi

Impact+Influence: The Frank Stavis Leadership Program is designed for rising leaders under age 40 who want to leave a lasting impact on the Jewish community. It is a joint program of the Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford's Jewish Leadership Academy and the Mandell JCC. Over the course of five sessions, you'll explore a variety of issues that the Jewish and global communities face today. You'll also share an overnight immersive leadership experience in Manhattan.

Five Exploratory Sessions

1. Who Are We? March 3, 2020

In this introductory session you'll get to know one another and share successes and challenges you have experienced on your Jewish journey.

2. Israel: It's Complicated March 30, 2020

We've been told so many different sides to Israel's story. How do we weed through it all to make informed decisions? Find out in Session 2.

3. Where Do I Fit In? April 27, 2020

How do you define community? What are the common values that create our Jewish community? Session 3 will explore these questions and more.

4. Making a Meaningful Impact May 26, 2020

How can you make a difference through volunteering, philanthropy, and more? Session 4 will explore lots of options.

5. Be an Influencer June 8, 2020

What options and opportunities are available to you in Greater Hartford's Jewish community, and how can you connect them with your personal and professional interests? Session 5 ties it all together.

Overnight NYC Leadership Experience Date TBA

We'll travel as a group to New York City to explore Jewish leadership from several perspectives. You'll visit national Jewish agencies, culturally relevant locations and museums, and – of course – enjoy the best kosher cuisine in the city.

About Frank Stavis

Frank Stavis personified leadership. He was committed to the continuity of quality leadership in the Jewish community, and he mentored several generations of new leaders as the past president of both the Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford and the Mandell JCC. In recognition of Frank's commitment to Jewish communal life, his friends and family established the Frank Stavis Memorial Fund which in part finances Impact+Influence to continue his legacy of Jewish leadership development.

The Mandell Jewish Community Center is a gathering place and resource for the Hartford region, serving people of all backgrounds and at every age and stage of life. The JCC provides recreational, cultural, educational, and social programs designed to promote physical, intellectual, and spiritual well-being of its members and others who participate. As a center where all are welcome, our mission is rooted in a fundamental commitment to inclusivity and in universal Jewish values. We work to build community, cultural identity, and bridges of understanding by celebrating diversity and fostering appreciation for Jewish culture and heritage.
