TEACHING PEACE: CIVIL DISCOURSE FOR THE NEXT GENERATION

A Community Program with Kids4Peace

Monday, March 12, 2018 | 7:30 p.m.
Beth El Temple | 2626 Albany Avenue, West Hartford

Learn how Kids4Peace helps Israeli and Palestinian children and youth build relationships that create a better society for everyone. A Q&A will follow.

ABOUT KIDS4PEACE

Founded in Jerusalem in 2002, Kids4Peace is a global movement of youth and families dedicated to ending conflict and inspiring hope in divided societies around the world. It operates international summer camps, leadership programs and a year-round program for more than 500 Palestinian, Israeli and North American youth. Kids4Peace connects children and families across the lines that separate us, nurturing long-term relationships and honest dialogue while preparing youth to be public leaders.
