MEET OUR PROGRAM SPEAKER

Kara Sundlun is an Emmy Award winning news anchor and talk show host at WFSB-TV. She hosts the popular daytime talk show Better Connecticut with Scot Haney weekdays at 3 p.m. and has covered some of the biggest stories of our time, from reporting live from the terror attacks on 9-11 to breaking the horrific news of the school shooting at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown. The daughter of former Rhode Island Governor Bruce Sundlun, Kara tells the inspiring story of their journey to reconnect in her memoir, Finding Dad: From Love Child to Daughter. She will share with us what she's learned about forgiveness, reconciliation and owning your story.

MEET OUR DINNER SPEAKER

Jeanette Koll is the Director of Resource Development at Beit Uri, a village for children and adults with special needs located in our sister city of Afula, Israel. Jeanette's son Noam has been a Beit Uri resident since 1991, and Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford has provided financial support to Beit Uri's programs since 2002. Jeanette was born in London and calls Israel home; she has also lived in Atlanta and Belgrade, Serbia while her husband served in the Israeli diplomatic service. While in Belgrade, she helped to open the KEC Centre for Special Needs Adults. Jeanette will share her family's story and discuss how Federation is helping people of all abilities to live a richer and more meaningful life.

ABOUT FEDERATION WOMEN'S PHILANTHROPY

Federation Women's Philanthropy is all about connection and impact: enhancing and enriching life locally, in Israel and around the world while building meaningful relationships with one another.
