A MESSAGE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

I would like to begin by thanking this year's community members who believe so strongly in our annual Jewish Book Festival, as shown by their generous participation in our Literary Circle. I also extend my deepest appreciation to this year's Jewish Book Festival Committee, whose dedication and commitment have brought together an incredible lineup for our Federation's 27th Annual Jewish Book Festival.

For the past 27 years, our Book Festival has united our community with authors from around the world, sharing books that span an extraordinary range of topics. This year is no different - there is something for everyone.

On behalf of the Jewish Federation's Board of Governors and myself, we look forward to welcoming you at one (or more) of this year's events as we celebrate our shared love of literature. Once again, thank you to both our Literary Circle and Jewish Book Festival Committee members - your support makes this Festival possible.

THANK YOU TO EVERYONE WHO DONATED FUNDS TO SUPPORT
OUR 27TH ANNUAL JEWISH BOOK FESTIVAL.

WELCOME TO THE 27TH ANNUAL JEWISH BOOK FESTIVAL

Our stories have sustained our people through millennia and does this year's festival have stories for you! Did you know Galveston, Texas was to be the new Ellis Island, the most famous female painter in India was Jewish, or that German Jews in 1900s New York formed an off-the-books vice squad to fight organized crime? Why would a book about the French Resistance never mention the protagonist's Judaism? How were most of the Jews of Italy's Puglia region saved from deportation during World War II? Listen to a Brazilian journalist whose kindergarten teacher was arrested for helping Josef Mengele, and a Columbia University professor who responded to the events of October 7 with evocative poetry. Learn more about a beloved singer and songwriter, and discover an alternate universe wherein historic fiction of the Spanish Inquisition is combined with magic and fantasy. Intrigued? We hope you will join us at these educational, enlightening, and entertaining events.

As always, these programs would not be possible without the generous support of our Literary Circle. Many thanks to all our new and continuing members.

Looking forward to seeing you at the Festival!

Chair, Jewish Book Festival Committee

RACHEL COCKERELL

Melting Point

Family, Memory, and the Search for a Promised Land

In 1907, a ship packed with Russian Jews set sail for a promised land—not New York or Palestine, but Galveston, Texas. Rachel Cockerell's great-grandfather, David Jochelmann, along with Israel Zangwill, led the now forgotten Galveston movement to provide an alternate port of entry for Jewish refugees. Churchill, Roosevelt, Hemingway, and other memorable figures feature in this innovative retelling of a failed Zionist enterprise. Cockerell lets her sources—interviews, letters, diaries, and newspaper articles—speak for themselves as she asks what it means to belong and whether a promised land can live up to its promises.

Melting Point is historian Rachel Cockerell's first book. She has presented her research in the US and Israel on CNN, the BBC, TEDx, and at the Texas Jewish Historical Society.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 29 | 7:00 P.M. | ON ZOOM

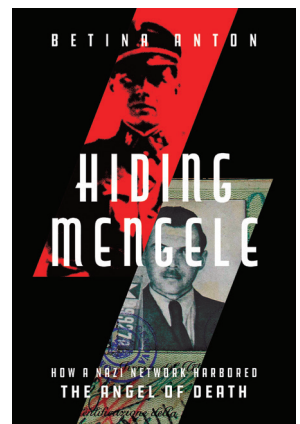

BETINA ANTON

Hiding Mengele

How a Nazi Network Harbored the Angel of Death

In 1985, six-year-old Betina Anton's kindergarten teacher was arrested by Brazilian authorities for helping hide Dr. Josef Mengele. After World War II, Mengele evaded capture for 34 years in South America with the support of a network of sympathizers. Anton, now an investigative journalist, draws on extensive interviews and never-before-seen letters and photos in this suspenseful and revelatory portrait of Mengele and the motivations of the community that shielded him.

Betina Anton, an investigative journalist with over 20 years of experience, is an international news editor at Globo TV, the largest channel in Latin America, and has received the Vladimir Herzog Award, Brazil's highest honor in journalism. Hiding Mengele has been translated into nine languages.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 2 | 10:00 AM | TEMPLE BETH ISRAEL OF HIGHLAND PARK & EAGLE ROCK

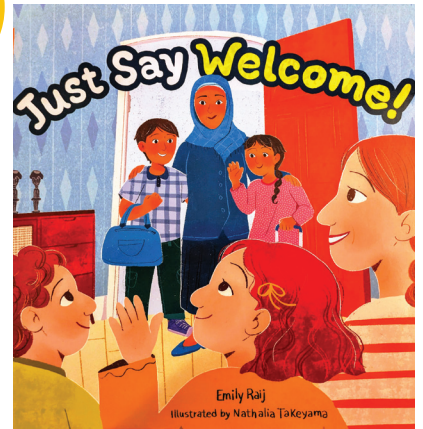

EMILY RAJI

Just Say Welcome!

FAMILY
EVENT

At the center of this heartfelt story is the Jewish tradition of welcoming the stranger. In her book Just Say Welcome!, children's author Emily Raji tells the story of a Jewish family who invites an immigrant family from Iraq to stay with them until their new apartment in the community is available. Tilly, her brother Adam, and her mom personify the famous quote from Leviticus, which reminds us to love the stranger as ourselves, because "...you were strangers in the land of Egypt." Emily will read and discuss her book, Just Say Welcome!, with families. The event is best suited for families with children ages 4-9.

Emily Raji has written more than 40 books for children and has based this one on her family's personal experience hosting a refugee family in 2017.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 5 | 11:00 A.M. | BRUNCH AT A PRIVATE HOME | $36 PER PERSON

BONNY REICHERT

How to Share an Egg
A True Story of Hunger, Love, and Plenty

MUST
RSVP
BY
10/24

Canadian journalist Bonny Reichert grew up with a love of food from her family's restaurant business—and her father's stories of starvation and survival in Auschwitz and Birkenau. In this dual memoir, she recalls moments of both scarcity and abundance, her reluctance to examine the horrors behind her father's childhood, and the shared meal in a Warsaw restaurant that finally helped her face her fears about writing his life story. Reichert shares her family's legacy, both personal and culinary, her struggles as a child of Holocaust survivors, and how she found the courage and joy her father wished for her.

Bonny Reichert has been an editor for Chatelaine and Today's Parent and has received the National Magazine Award.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 9 | 4:00 P.M. | UNIVERSITY OF LA VERNE | RECEPTION

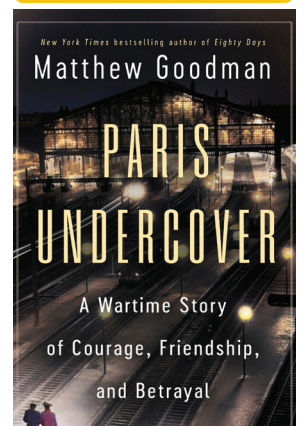

MATTHEW GOODMAN

Paris Undercover
A Wartime Story of Courage, Friendship, and Betrayal

Two unlikely heroines risked everything in Nazi-occupied Paris to smuggle Allied soldiers to safety. Captured by the Gestapo, Kate Bonnefous was imprisoned for the remainder of the war, while Etta Shiber returned to the US in a prisoner exchange and published a bestselling memoir of their exploits that became a Hollywood film. As Goodman now reveals, Shiber's story was built on fabrications and omissions—chief among them her Jewish identity. Drawing on uncovered military records and personal testimonies, Goodman reconstructs the true story of their friendship, courage, deceptions, and buried truths.

Matthew Goodman is a New York Times bestselling nonfiction author. His work has received the New York City Book Award and was a finalist for the National Jewish Book Award.

JANE EISNER

Carole King
She Made the Earth Move

The legendary singer-songwriter Carole King has shaped American popular music since the early 1960s. Her 1971 album, Tapestry, won a record four Grammys, and she's still performing today. Drawing on numerous interviews and contemporary sources, biographer Jane Eisner reveals King's musical genius and cultural influences as she traces her life from humble Brooklyn beginnings to musical stardom, from personal strife to her recent years as a political activist and the subject of a Tony Award-winning musical.

Jane Eisner is the former editor-in-chief of The Forward, Director of Academic Affairs at Columbia Journalism School, and author of Taking Back the Vote: Getting American Youth Involved in Our Democracy.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 16 | 4:00 P.M. | TEMPLE AMI SHALOM | DESSERT RECEPTION

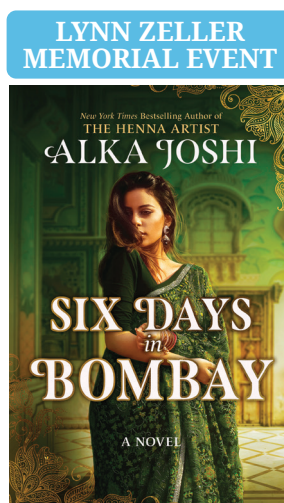

ALKA JOSHI

Six Days in Bombay
A Novel

Inspired by the life of painter Amrita Sher-Gil, Six Days in Bombay opens in 1937, in the hospital where Jewish Indian painter Mira Novak is recovering from a miscarriage. Novak dies under suspicious circumstances after giving her nurse Sona three paintings and a cryptic note begging her to deliver them to Mira's former lovers in Europe, where anti-fascist resistance mirrors India's independence movement. Under suspicion for Mira's death, Sona sets out on a journey of adventure and finds a life she could never have anticipated.

Alka Joshi is a New York Times bestselling author. Her debut novel, The Henna Artist, was a Reese Witherspoon Book Club pick and has been translated into 29 languages.

RABBI ANGELA BUCHDAHL

Heart of a Stranger
An Unlikely Rabbi's Story of Faith, Identity, and Belonging

Join us for a very special conversation with the Senior Rabbi of Central Synagogue in New York City. Born to a Jewish-American father and a Korean-Buddhist mother, and raised Jewish, Angela Warnick Buchdahl is the first Asian American to be ordained as a rabbi in North America. She has become a highly respected and sought-after speaker among both Jews and non-Jews, particularly during some of the most challenging moments in recent history. Her memoir shares her calling to the spiritual life from a young age, her invigorating approach to faith and community, and the challenges she has faced in becoming accepted not only as a rabbi, but also as a Jew.

This is a nationwide online event hosted by the Jewish Book Council.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 19 | 7:00 P.M. | TEMPLE BETH DAVID | RECEPTION

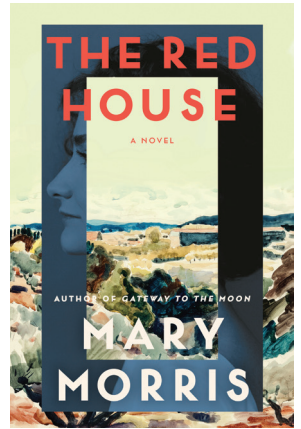

MARY MORRIS

The Red House
A Novel

Mary Morris draws on a little-known episode in the persecution of Italian Jews during World War II to tell this story of suspense and revelation. An artist searches for her Italian-born mother who had disappeared 30 years earlier without explanation, leaving behind only her purse, keys, and paintings of a red house. Now grown, the artist returns to Italy to find the red house that may solve the riddle of her mother's early life and, with it, reveal her own identity.

Award-winning novelist Mary Morris is an essayist and travel writer. She received the Rome Prize in Literature and the 2016 Anisfield-Wolf Book Award for her novel The Jazz Palace.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 23 | 4:00 P.M. | TEMPLE SINAI OF GLENDALE | RECEPTION

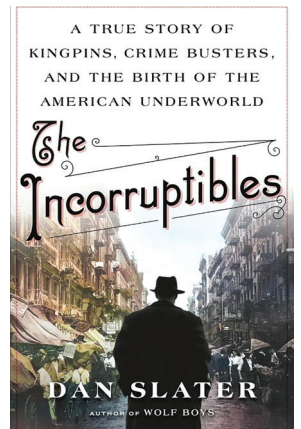

DAN SLATER

The Incorruptibles

A True Story of Kingpins, Crime Busters, and the Birth of the American Underworld

Meet the “Guys and Dolls” of the Jewish Gilded Age—the gamblers, con men, gangsters and molls of the teeming Lower East Side—and the uptown, mostly German-Jewish philanthropists who tried to reform them before antisemitic officials could blame the entire Jewish community for their crimes. The Incorruptibles resurrects figures as varied as the politically savvy gambler Arnold Rothstein, the powerful reformer Rabbi Judah Magnes, and anti-crime crusader Abe Schoenfeld. Dan Slater imbues these characters and many more with vigor and wry humor in a book that The New York Times has called “unrivaled.”

Dan Slater is a former reporter for The Wall Street Journal and has written for The New York Times, The New Yorker, The Washington Post, and more.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 3 | 7:00 P.M. | ON ZOOM

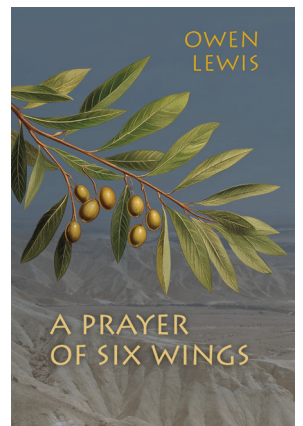

OWEN LEWIS

A Prayer of Six Wings

In A Prayer of Six Wings, poet Owen Lewis explores his grief and shock in the wake of the October 7th attacks in Israel and during the following year. His poems intersperse newspaper headlines with his reactions and those of his family in Israel, as they grapple with the complex emotions so many of us share—horror at the suffering of both Israeli and Gazan victims, helplessness, dismay at the rise in antisemitism, and our desire for an elusive peace.

Owen Lewis is a psychiatry professor at Columbia University and the award-winning author of four poetry collections. He has received the E.E. Cummings Prize, the Guernsey International Poetry Prize, and the 2023 Rumi Prize for Poetry, among others.
