Erev Yom Kippur
Friday, September 29
Early Kol Nidre Service • 6:00 p.m.
This is an abbreviated service that will last under an hour, and is perfect for young families and those who prefer not to be out later in the evening.
Traditional Kol Nidre Service • 8:00 p.m.

After 5778 years, we’re old enough to make a choice.

Temple Chai is offering earlier abbreviated services on Erev Rosh Hashanah and Kol Nidre, in addition to our regular Holy Day worship.

Choose 6:00 p.m. or our traditional 8:00 p.m.
Same book, same music, fewer readings.
Shorter sermon. Amen.
If you’re perfect, we’re not the congregation for you.

We’re like a sukkah - incomplete, built by hand, welcoming and open. So if you want to worship with a community that’s filled with nice people in a temporary space, we invite you to give Chai a try.

Some assembly required.

Non-Member Passes
We understand if you are not prepared to join Temple Chai. Because we have limited seating in our facility, we will require passes for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur to ensure that we have space for our members. Passes for non-members are available for gifts of at least $180 for a family, or $90 for individuals. These gifts can be applied towards the first year of membership.

Advance registration is required by September 15, 2017. We will not be able to accommodate registrations at the door. Registration is available now at www.templechaisa.org/hhd.
