2022

ANNUAL REPORT

PLANTING FOR THE FUTURE

OUR MISSION

Honoring the values of tzedakah and tikkun olam, the Tidewater Jewish Foundation is dedicated to creating permanent resources to meet the challenges and needs of the Jewish community. TJF educates individuals, families, and its affiliates on the rewards of philanthropy and facilitates the philanthropic process through planned giving and endowments.

The Colony Group

The Tidewater Jewish Foundation would like to extend its sincerest appreciation to The Colony Group, LLC for their continued and generous support of this annual report.

T.E.A.M.

TOGETHER EVERYONE ACHIEVES MORE OR TRAIN, EDUCATE, ATTRACT, MOTIVATE

On behalf of everyone involved in the Tidewater Jewish Foundation we must tip our caps and say THANK YOU to everyone for our impact over the last year. Together Everyone Achieves More (TEAM). Our TEAM came to play as a very strong, dynamic, and caring community from individual donors, congregations, and community affiliated agencies and organizations. Our local community, state, country and world has seen and witnessed events this year that one would never have expected, together we came to HELP in many ways. The TEAM effort shown in supporting the needs of those fleeing or staying during the war in Ukraine, the growing number of young philanthropists, Bnai Mitzvah Teens, starting B'nai Tzedek funds, the number of new funds opened at the foundation this year, the additional dollars raised for the Foundation's Community Impact Grants, the number of legacy gifts secured through year 5 of the LIFE & LEGACY program throughout Hampton Roads are further examples of our TEAM's efforts and SUCCESSES. Our TEAM is EVERYONE.

Together, we Train, Educate, Attract and Motivate others. This is another example of how our TEAM works. As we continue to grow and build for the future THANKS from the bottom of our hearts. Please continue to support TJF in any way possible. Each one of us can play a role in leaving a legacy to support this vibrant Jewish community. Whether you give a $1,000,000 or $1,000. The key to our success is getting everyone to know about the foundation and find it to be their philanthropic home plate. The foundation is here to train and educate the community about the need to secure our future, attract donors and their advisors to engage in multi-generational conversations and philanthropic planning. Professional advisors will find a willing partner at the Foundation responsive to them and their clients' philanthropic wishes. We work together with our community's cherished congregations and affiliate agencies to grow their endowments through donor engagement and conversation. We motivate all ages to consider the legacy and impact they wish to make to ensure a vibrant community from generation to generation.

Please do not hesitate to call and ask a question or two, but most importantly ask yourself how I can help carry my legacy forward from generation to generation. This is how our TEAM works. Thanks for joining in and playing along together with us.

WHY CHOOSE TJF?

▲ TJF has served as the charitable home for families in Tidewater, and for countless generations throughout the world.

We understand the importance of identifying multiple areas of charitable opportunities to be able to meet your varying goals and needs. We want to help you help others today and for generations to come.

1. EXPERIENCE

TJF has served Tidewater since 1984 and currently manages hundreds of funds for individual, family and foundation donors and local nonprofits. Since our inception, we have distributed over $229 million to nearly 1900 charitable organizations. During its long history of partnering with donors and the community, the Foundation has earned an outstanding reputation for integrity, transparency, and service.

2. MAXIMUM TAX BENEFITS

TJF is a public charity. Every fund created at the Foundation qualifies for the maximum charitable tax deduction permitted by law.

3. SECURITY

The responsibility for employing prudent investment strategies to carry out the Foundation's mission rests with its Board of Directors. The Directors determine overall investment policies and asset allocation guidelines and set the Foundation's payout rate (for Endowments only). The Investment Committee implements the Foundation's investment policies, selects investment managers, and monitors investment performance. Funds are generally pooled by investment. However, the Foundation administers each fund as a separate account and reports each fund's activities on an individual basis. TJF invests its assets to provide support for the community's current needs and to preserve charitable resources for use by future generations.

4. STRATEGIC PHILANTHROPIC SERVICES

Our extensive knowledge of the local, national, and international Jewish community is at your fingertips. Our experienced professional staff is ready to support you and your charitable giving interests.

5. DONOR SERVICES

Courteous, knowledgeable, and responsive TJF staff are always ready to answer questions and concerns — of individuals, organizations, and professional advisors — and will turn challenges into opportunities, ensuring prompt attention to donor needs. We believe in a donor-centered approach to giving, and we are here to help create your vision.

6. FLEXIBILITY AND SIMPLICITY

Donors can create funds in any name they choose, for the charitable purposes they choose. With many charitable giving options available through the Foundation, solutions can be tailored to meet donors' specific needs, visions, and objectives.

7. RECOGNITION OR ANONYMITY

You and your family may choose to receive public recognition or remain anonymous.

8. LEGACY

With TJF, you can leave a Jewish Legacy for your family and the causes you value — from generation to generation.

9. EFFECTIVE LEADERSHIP AND ACCOUNTABILITY

Our Board of Directors serves as the governing body of TJF. The Directors oversee operations, set policies, and make final decisions on all grant awards. It is the Board's responsibility to ensure that distributions made from the funds the Foundation holds are in keeping with donors' wishes and address the challenges that face our community as it changes and grows.

10. PERMANENCE

We're here for generations to come. You can rely on our stewardship of funds that will long outlast their Donors. We will be here, ensuring funds are properly administered, far into the future.

My son, Niv, knows the layout of the Simon Family JCC like the back of his hand. He's only five but can already point out the best kickballs on the white-top behind the building, the dogleg on the 6th hole of the mini-golf course, and how to reach max speed on the Noah's Ark water slide next to the outdoor pool. And, not far behind, you will often spot Niv's two-year-old brother, Shai, as he waddles along and does his best to keep up. It's hard to imagine a reality where mainstays like a JCC, synagogue, day school, and cultural programming don't exist. But I also know the future is not guaranteed and that we must safeguard what we hold dear. That's why my wife, Shikma, and I are proud to sign the Jewish Future Pledge, which states that fifty percent or more of our assets left for charitable purposes will be directed to efforts to strengthen and serve the Jewish people and/or the State of Israel.

TJF Revamps its Book of Life

TJF unveiled its revamped Book of Life website, which features a new interface, updated graphics, mobile responsiveness, and quality of life features that will make it easier to update names, dates, and information. Our revamped Book of Life website is a long-term investment for the Tidewater Jewish community. This new platform makes it easier to see and navigate existing entries and entice individuals to share their legacy stories when they join the Foundation's Book of Life by leaving an endowed legacy gift.

▲ Applications for the first Feldman Family Medical and Health Professions Scholarship opened on May 1, 2022

Feldman Scholarship Launch

In April, the Tidewater Jewish Foundation and the Feldman Family unveiled the Feldman Family Medical and Health Professional Scholarship Fund. This annual scholarship awards up to $10,000 a year to Jewish students living in Virginia – with priority given to Hampton Roads residents – who have been accepted to matriculate at a Virginia-based institution for a degree in their chosen healthcare field.

“Our goal is to build the community by education,” said Dr. William Feldman. “I don’t want to see people discouraged going into the profession because of finances. Moreover, by opening it up to more people, I think it’ll do good for the entire Jewish community in the state of Virginia.”

Dr. Feldman, and his wife, Mary, have always felt that strengthening the Jewish people comes through investing in individuals’ success. For the Feldmans, that meant uniting their passion for Jewish philanthropy and medical and health professions.

Dr. Feldman was uniquely positioned to create this scholarship: he was a pediatrician for 33 years in Hampton Roads and served on various committees at Eastern Virginia Medical School and the Children’s Hospital of the King’s Daughters.

“After retirement, it was good to give back and also look at the future of medicine in Hampton Roads,” said Dr. Feldman.

“It became clear to me that one of the big problems people have is not only being accepted to medical school but also paying for it. Anything that could be done from a scholarship point of view to alleviate debt would be a good thing.”

The scholarship aims to incentivize Jewish students to enter healthcare fields through Virginia-based institutions. Up to $40,000 will be available for four years, with a maximum of $10,000 a year. Applicants must be entering the field of medicine, dentistry, Physician Assistant, nursing as LPN, RN or Nurse Practitioner; pharmacy or physical therapy; and other ancillary medical professions.

TJF Provides Assistance to Ukrainian Refugees

On February 24th, 2022, Russia invaded Ukraine and refugees began spilling across bordering countries. An estimated 200,000 Jews were living in Ukraine, many of whom were trapped in conflict zones in east Ukraine or fled the fighting. Support for the Jewish community was urgently needed. The global Jewish community rallied its resources and came together, drawing from over a century of crisis response experience to aid those Jews who remained in Ukraine, those trying to evacuate, and the thousands of refugees who have now spread across Europe and other countries.

The Tidewater Jewish Foundation provided a $25,000 grant to the United Jewish Federation Ukraine Emergency Fund. Nobody anticipated the scale or length of the fighting. In FY2022, Tidewater Jewish Foundation donor advised fund holders granted $540,000 to Ukraine emergency relief, with over $440,000 going directly to the United Jewish Federation of Tidewater's Ukraine Emergency Fund. The UJFT Fund was created to help with a variety of issues, such as securing the local community and its institutions, maintaining critical welfare services, launching an emergency hotline, securing five Jewish schools, and training staff to manage crisis needs.

▲ The Ukraine Emergency Fund was established to assist with the challenges of protecting the Jewish community trying to escape the conflict or sheltering in place.

Our donors also recommended grants to the following organizations

- Friends of United Hatzalah
- American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee
- American National Red Cross
- International Fund for Animal Welfare
- Federation of Jewish Communities of the CIS
- Agudath Israel of America

▲ Rabbi Moshe Druin gets to work on evaluating nearly 30 Torahs for the Tidewater Jewish Community.

TJF hosts Sofer and educational experience for Tidewater

Grants in Action: Meet & Greet with a Sofer highlighted a $24,000 Tidewater Jewish Foundation Community Impact Grant to Temple Emanuel. It gave over 50 community members the opportunity to meet a Sofer, learn what they do, and see them in action. Invited to Tidewater by Temple Emanuel, the Sofer spent a week in Tidewater evaluating and assessing 30 scrolls from various community congregations and organizations. "Temple Emanuel contacted every synagogue, Hillel, nursing home, Chabad, and Chavurah in the area to ask whether they had Torahs that needed, or they wanted, to be inspected," said Lovitz. "It was determined that there were over 25 Torahs in the Tidewater community that needed to be evaluated."

"We are incredibly grateful to the Tidewater Jewish Foundation for allowing us to have the community's Torahs evaluated," said Jason Lovitz, Grant Writer and Past President of Temple Emanuel. "Bringing in Rabbi Moshe Druin to come and evaluate 30 scrolls over the week was a pretty cool thing."

Those with ties to the Tidewater Jewish community are eligible to apply for the Simon Family Passport.

Stein Family College Scholarship now offers up to $80,000.

The Tidewater Jewish Foundation announced that starting in 2022, the Stein Family College Scholarship will be offering up to $20,000 a year for four years. This $80,000 scholarship opportunity makes it the largest scholarship in Jewish Tidewater.

The scholarship, which is given to Hampton Roads Jewish first-year college students, was created in 2009 as a tribute to Arlene Stein, who was unable to finish college due to financial difficulties. The Stein family also views this as a chance for recipients to enrich their lives, afford out-of-state tuition, and engage with a larger Jewish community as part of their college experience.

TJF awards Leia Morrissey the Stein Family Scholarship.

The annual Stein Family College Scholarship of the Tidewater Jewish Foundation was recently awarded to Leia Morrissey, a soon-to-be graduate of Granby High School in Norfolk, Virginia.

Morrissey is the 14th recipient of the four-year scholarship, which provides up to $20,000 per year to a Jewish student in Tidewater. The scholarship was established in 2009 in memory of Arlene Stein, who did not complete college because of financial hardship. Arlene passed away in 2007 and Jerry Stein, her beloved husband, in 2014. TJF works closely with the Stein family each year to administer the scholarship.

“I am beyond honored to receive the Stein Family Scholarship,” said Morrissey. “I’m going to never not appreciate it. I’ll continue earning it by doing well in college and making everyone back home proud.”

Simon Family Passport: Yael Schranz

It’s been almost a month now and it feels like I just left yesterday. You know the experience was amazing especially when it is so difficult to move on from it.

I went to Israel on a gap year known as Young Judaea Year Course. I lived in Jerusalem taking classes on Judaism, Zionism, Middle Eastern studies, and Leadership. During that time, we also took lots of educational trips to learn about all the aspects of Israeli society. Then, I lived in Tel Aviv where I first learned how to code through a tech track and then interned at Nefesh B’Nefesh. In between these two semesters, we all participated in a program called Sar-El where we volunteered at army bases for two weeks. Throughout the year, I had a variety of unique experiences from Tuesday trips to road trips with the rabbi to Shabbat B’yachad. With the freedom that this program provided me, I took the opportunity to make my own travel plans to visit friends and family all around Israel. I had a variety of shabbos experiences that I hold so close to my heart. I got to participate in Tikvah Overseas Scholars program where I took an additional class and listened to amazing speakers. And I was a fellow of Nitzavim where we learned how to be Jewish leaders on a college campus after of year in Israel. — Yael Schranz

KBH finishes its water drainage project.

The Kehillat Bet Hamidrash Synagogue, which was constructed over 30 years ago, had been updated to meet Virginia Beach city requirements over the years.

To protect cars from water, drainage pipes and cinder block barriers were installed adjacent to the parking area.

Despite these changes, water drainage remained a major issue.

The $8,250 Community Impact Grant from the Tidewater Jewish Foundation covered nearly 45% of the project's costs. KBH was able to address their drainage issue while remaining under budget.

TJF celebrates donors at 2022 Simon Family Legacy Celebration

On May 17, the Tidewater Jewish Foundation celebrated donors, community milestones, and philanthropic accomplishments at the 2022 Simon Family Legacy Celebration. The first in-person event in three years, the celebration highlighted the continued success of the LIFE & LEGACY program, new initiatives such as the Jewish Future Pledge, and the wide-reaching impact TJF donors had over the past few years.

“It was so amazing to finally come together as a community and celebrate Jewish Tidewater’s incredible philanthropic accomplishments,” said Naomi Limor Sedek, President and CEO of the Tidewater Jewish Foundation. “This community has given so much, especially over the past year, so it was important to thank and celebrate with people in person.”

Central to the remarks was the community’s continued support of Ukraine. Since the start of the Russian invasion earlier this year, over $340,000 has been donated to emergency support and relief. Many donors, who utilized their TJF donor advised funds, gave over $240,000 directly to United Jewish Federation of Tidewater’s Ukraine Emergency Fund, which has supported agencies and organizations such as the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC), the Jewish Agency for Israel (JAFI), and others that are on the ground every day. There is an additional $200,000 match from an anonymous donor for gifts to support the UJFT Ukraine Emergency Fund which will continue to support JDC and JAFI and other organizations including United Hatzalah.

TJF has been awarded a certificate of conformance to the Best Practices under the Global Fiduciary Standard of Excellence as assessed by The Colony Group

The Advisory Process is modeled after the Fiduciary Quality Management System, as established by the Centre for Fiduciary Excellence, to facilitate ongoing conformity with the Standard. In the execution of The Colony Group's four-step Process, TJF documents and recordings were reviewed, including: Investment Policy Statements and Asset

Allocation Analyses, Investment Committee Meeting minutes, bylaws, as well as other investment governance records maintained by TJF.

Investment Report for the Year

Ended June 30, 2022

Most equity markets started the FY 2022 with gains and the S&P 500 reached an all-time high of 4818 on January 4, 2022. During the first six months, The S&P 500 was up 11.7%. Non-US Developed equities (EAFE) were up also but not as much as large cap domestic stocks, rising 2.2%. Emerging market stocks and small cap domestic stocks did not fare as well, down 9.3% and 2.3% respectively. With the start of 2022, however, all markets reversed. High inflation (and the resulting rate increases by the Federal Reserve), the Russian invasion of the Ukraine, and skyrocketing energy prices took a heavy toll on equity performance. The market was down dramatically in the first six months of the new calendar year. Domestic large CAP and EAFE were down 20.0% and 19.6% respectively. Poor performance in developed market stocks was significantly impacted by the strength of the dollar. For the 1-year period, the S&P 500 was down 10.6% and EAFE was down 17.8%.

Bonds were no safe haven either. The constant maturity 10-year treasury yield rose 1.50% for the year and intermediate bonds lost 10.3%. Corporate bond spreads also weighed heavily on bonds as the market became concerned about the health of economy and the potential increased defaults if the economy fell into a recession.

The Jewish Community Endowment Pool (JCEP) in which the Foundation is invested, declined by 6.1% for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2022. Although the foundation return was negative, on a relative basis, performance was quite strong. The return led its index by 2.8% and outperformed 81% of the Endowments & Foundation in the InvestmentMetrics Universe. Risk metrics continue to look favorable with an upside capture ratio of 111.6% and downside capture ratio of 93.2% when compared to the benchmark for the prior 10 years.

TJF is honored to work closely with the United Jewish Federation of Tidewater. TJF focuses on investing in Jewish tomorrows and UJFT provides for an enriched vibrant Jewish community today. TJF also works to support the community's efforts to build Lion of Judah Endowments (LOJEs) and Perpetual Annual Campaign Gifts (PACES).

The Federation's newest LOJEs stand with their beautiful LOJE Boards. These unique and beautiful boards, created by local artist Perry Deglandon and photographer Steve Budman, express in words and personal symbols, the dedication of our recently endowed Lions, to ensuring the future of this Jewish community for generations to come. New LOJEs include: Stephanie Calliott, Shari Friedman, Beth Jaffe, Jodi Klebanoff, Marcia Moss and Renee Strelitz.

Building a Strong Future

The Simon Family Legacy Society honors those who have committed themselves to the future of our Jewish community. The Society encompasses all donors who have either pledged to leave a permanent gift or already maintain an endowed gift at TJF.

Simon Family Legacy Society member Hilary Truman lights shabbat candles as her daughter Tatyana Calloway looks on transmitting values and traditions from generation to generation.

Supporting Cherished Organizations

Community members with a TJF Donor Advised Fund support their favorite organizations while maximizing their tax savings and avoiding administrative paperwork. These fundholders make thousands of distributions to countless organizations in Tidewater and around the world, with approximately 80% of all distributions made to Jewish organizations and causes.
