

A dynamic professional-development workshop for middle and high school teachers

Teaching the Arab-Israeli Conflict

WITH PRIMARY SOURCES

Thursday, October 17, 2019
4:00 – 7:00 PM

184 Washington Avenue Ext.
Albany, NY 12203

Participants will receive a $100 honorarium for attending

In this three-hour workshop for teachers, you will:

- Deepen your pedagogic content knowledge about this complex world history topic.
- Learn new strategies for engaging students with primary-source documents.
- Receive ready-to-use lesson plans and standards-aligned curriculum (New York State Standards, Common Core, and C3).

Topics Covered:

- Emergence of Zionism and Arab Nationalism
- World War I and the broken promises made to Arabs and Jews
- The British Mandate era
- State formation and peace treaties
- Continuing conflict & unresolved issues

NOTE: Registration is required. Spaces are limited. A Certificate of Participation will be provided for all participants. To receive the $100 honorarium, there is a $20 registration fee via credit card, which is then refunded after attendance at the workshop. The participant will then receive the $100 stipend. Please register by Thursday, October 10.

Steve Goldberg from the Institute for Curriculum Services will facilitate the workshop.

Steve taught world history and served as social studies department chairperson at New Rochelle High School for more than 40 years.

He is Co-Director of the Holocaust and Human Rights Education Center in Westchester County and has been a past president of NYSCSS, New York State Council for the Social Studies, and NCSS, National Council for the Social Studies.
