

Building Bridges Through Understanding

February 22, 6:30-8 pm

ADL Philadelphia is partnering with Project Shema, an organization founded by Jewish leaders with deep ties in social justice movements and provide analysis, resources, and strategies we need to address the anti-Jewish discourse we are experiencing. We will host this program in-person at the Perelman Center for Jewish Life at Drexel University, Thursday, February 22nd, 6:30 pm- 8 pm simultaneously in a variety of locations via simulcast so that our friends in Eastern PA, Southern New Jersey and Delaware are able to participate.

Featuring Facilitator:

Andrea (Andi) Friedman

Scan QR Code to Register

Simulcast Locations:

- Perelman Center for Jewish Life at Drexel , PA
- Beth David Reform Congregation, Gladwyne, PA
- Congregation Beth El, Voorhees, NJ