

Session 3:

"How Covid-19 has Impacted Special Education"

Back to School. How's it Going? Here's how it SHOULD be Going.

Covid-19 has created new obstacles for parents and their children who are on, or need to be on IEP's , 504's and require other special accommodations related to their educational needs. Come join us in another Zoom discussion with Special Education Attorney (and PJ Mom) Abra Allexenberg surrounding issues related to assessments and evaluations; what parents and students are entitled to; what remote learning looks like; and updates from the local governments.

Wednesday, November 4th, 8:00 pm, via Zoom

Please RSVP to Mindy Hall at mhall@jfcmm.org to obtain the Zoom information

If you have any particular questions you would like covered in the discussion, please send to Atty Allexenberg several days prior to the event at Special-ed@allexenberglaw.com.

Abra C. Allexenberg is a Special Education Attorney. Her practice, Allexenberg Law, is located in Central Massachusetts. She represents families of children with special needs in education matters to ensure that the unique needs of each child are met. She also handles cases on a volunteer basis for the Community Legal Aid Office in Worcester.

Attorney Allexenberg received her BS from Lesley College in Human Services with a Specialization in Early Intervention. She later earned her JD from New England School of Law while working full-time at the U.S. Attorney's Office in Boston.

Her family has belonged to Beth Tikvah Synagogue in Westborough for several years and they have been active members of the local Jewish Community.
