

JewMass and Jewish Federation's Young Adult Division (YAD) present:
Who Planted the Trees?
A Personal Story of the Holocaust
from a Son of Survivors.

Please join us for a special presentation by Dr. Michael Hirsh

When: Monday, September 21st at 6:00 pm

Where: Zoom

RSVP: golda.grinberg@umassmed.edu or Mindy Hall at mhall@jfcmm.org for Zoom information

JewMass is a program of the University of Massachusetts Medical School Dep't of Diversity and Inclusion co-sponsored by The Jewish Federation of Central Massachusetts

Michael Hirsh, MD, FACS, FAAP is a native New Yorker who is a Professor of Surgery and Pediatrics at the UMass Medical School, and is the Assistant Vice Provost for the 3 graduate schools for Promotion of Health and Wellness. Dr. Hirsh served as Surgeon-in-Chief of the UMass Memorial Children's Medical Center in Worcester, Ma. from 2009-2019. He was Division Chief of Pediatric Surgery and Associate Surgical Director of the Trauma Center and Pediatric Intensive Care Unit. He continues to serve as the Pediatric Trauma Director and Co-Director of the Injury Free Coalition (IFC) of Worcester. He is Past President of the IFC National from 2009-2011. He formerly served as Principal Investigator of Injury Free Pittsburgh from 1993-2000.

