

Mikvah

A JEWISH RITUAL BATH

A FOUR-PART SERIES

Classes are:

- |                                                        |                                                                                                                        |
|--------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Thursday, May 2nd                    | Intro to Mikvah (Rabbi Fellman, BI)Reform Perspective on the Role of the Ritual (Rabbi Valerie, TES) |
| Wednesday, May 15th                  | Family Purity (Sheva Liberow, Torah Center)                                                                     |
| Wednesday, May 29th                  | Alternative Experiences— making it meaningful to everyone(Rabbi Fellman, BI)                         |
| Sunday, June 2nd@ 3:00 PM | Visit to Mayyim Hayyim mikvah in Newton(Carpools will be arranged)                                          |

All Classes will be at the JCC at 7:00 pm
$18 for the series, $10 per class

RSVP: Please email receptionist@bethisraelworc.org or call 508-756-6204

This program was made possible through a grant of the Jewish Federation of Central Massachusetts

