Columbia Jewish Federation
Application for the Steve Terner Jewish Camp Scholarship Fund 2020

For children and young adults, overnight Jewish summer camp experiences are among the strongest influences on Jewish identity, however the overnight camps can be expensive. To alleviate some of the burden, the Columbia Jewish Federation established the Steve Terner Jewish Camp Scholarship Fund. The fund will provide supplemental funding for youth participation in Jewish overnight camps. Applications are due April 15, 2020. Please understand the following guidelines:

❖ Camp scholarships are for Jewish children living in Columbia.
❖ The scholarships are for campers entering grades 3-9 in the Fall of 2020.
❖ The Camp’s mission statement must speak to the positive reinforcement of Jewish education, growth and development, increasing commitment to family, synagogue and community.
❖ The camp must have a current accreditation by the American Camping Association and have a specific Jewish educational mission.
❖ All applications are subject to approval by the Columbia Jewish Federation.
❖ Subsidy amounts will be based on the number of applicants and the funding available.
❖ If reimbursement of prepaid expenses is required, receipt(s) must be provided with the application.
❖ By accepting the scholarship, the applicant agrees to participate in appropriate publicity before and/or after camp in the Columbia Jewish News.
❖ The recipient will be asked to write a paragraph and send a picture about their camp experience that may be published in the Columbia Jewish News. Please send this to us when your child returns from camp.
❖ Recipients will be notified no later than May 2, 2020.

Please call Barry Abels if you have any questions: 803-787-2023 ext. 207

The application must be typed or printed clearly in ink with all questions completed. Applications missing any requested information will NOT be considered.

All applications are treated confidentially.

Please send the completed application by mail or email.
