

Learning to Babysit for Children with Special Needs

Sundays:
February 24
March 3, 10, 17, 24, 31

(All classes 3 - 5 p.m., except March 24, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.)

JCC MetroWest
760 Northfield Ave.
West Orange

Cost: $75

Open to teens in grades 8-12

During this six-week course, teens will be trained by a special needs professional through workshops, videos, and meetings. Students will be certified in CPR and first aid, with additional topics including: disability awareness, rights and responsibilities, child development and behavioral challenges, communicating with the child with special needs, modifying games/activities, handling emergencies, and more. A list of teens that have completed the course can then be shared with families in the community seeking childcare.

March 24 session includes a 6-hour CPR/first aid training

For further information and to RSVP contact Rebecca Wanatick at MetroWestABLE@jfedgmw.org or (973) 929-3129.

Greater MetroWest ABLE is the community's network of agencies and community leaders that serve and advocate for individuals with disabilities and their families.

Building an inclusive community is a priority. Contact us and we will make every effort to meet your needs.

