BEYOND GROUP HOMES: Journey to Community Housing

Thursday
November 15
7 - 9 p.m.

JCC Central NJ
1391 Martine Ave., Scotch Plains

It's never too early to start planning for the future of your children, especially when they have developmental disabilities and mental health challenges that may require lifelong care. Join us for this important session on how to begin the process, who to include in the conversation, and why it is critical to plan early.

WORKSHOP LEADERS:

Adam Wilson, Attorney,
Hinkle, Fingles, Prior & Fischer, P.C.

Linda Press, Executive Director,
Jewish Service for the Developmentally Disabled

Audrey Winkler, Executive Director,
JESPY House

WORKSHOP DISCUSSION WILL INCLUDE:

- Housing models and affordable options
- Funding sources for support services
- Navigating a complex system
- JSDD's collaborative role in working with families to develop residential arrangements and necessary individual supports
- JESPY's Aging in Place initiative, including the vital role of planning and providing alternatives to traditional senior care
