

JVS JOB-SEEKERS WORKSHOP

Galvanize into ACTION!!!

These days, job-seekers are often told that finding a job IS their job. But for many, it's a job they've never done before—so, what's the best way to approach it?

In this highly interactive presentation, Terrence "Terry" Seamon, an executive career transition consultant with The Ayers

Group, will explain the six elements of a pro-active job search, based on the word "ACTION".

When these six tips are implemented, job-seekers find they're more focused, more motivated, and more driven to find their next job.
