

The Holocaust Council of Greater MetroWest NJ

GUEST SPEAKER — PETER KESSEL

You are invited to hear Peter Kessel speak about harrowing details of how his Polish born parents survived concentration camps, death marches, and other precarious situations in camps such as Bergen Belsen and Birkenau. Peter will also speak about the rest of his family, some who were not as fortunate as his parents and others who escaped and settled in Israel.

Please join us on Thursday, Feb. 15 at noon

For Lunch & Learn

Admission is free and all are invited.

Alex Aidekman Family Jewish Community Campus, 901 Route 10, Whippany, NJ 07981

Directions available at www.ifedgmw.org/directions

Please RSVP to holocaustcouncil@jfedgmw.org or (973) 929-3194

Building an inclusive community is a priority.

Contact us and we will make every effort to meet your needs.

