

"Injustice anywhere
is a threat to justice everywhere."

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

RECITATION OF
REV. DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.'S
LETTER FROM A BIRMINGHAM JAIL

LET US RAISE OUR VOICES

On April 16, 1963, Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., wrote his famous "Letter from Birmingham Jail," which was addressed to Birmingham's local white clergy, including at least one rabbi, who had been critical of King's organizing tactics. The Letter, now an important part of American Scripture, passionately expressed King's visions of a just society and contained the now-ubiquitous verse, "Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere."

The Jewish community marks time through ritual. We recite from biblical scrolls that capture the emotions and historical consciousness of specific moments in time. In recognition of the ongoing work of Civil Rights, TBAY will join many Jewish clergy, leaders, congregations, and organizations at 1:00 p.m. EST on this Martin Luther King Jr Day. We will recite "Letter from Birmingham Jail" on Zoom and live stream it to the TBAY public Facebook page.

Please join us! You can sign up to participate in the Zoom meeting and/or to recite some of the letter here:
https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZYrdOmrrzssHdSP4Qcuq3IW2Q2FXrtkK_cU

#RecitingTheLetterFromBirmingham

