

The Holocaust Council of Greater MetroWest NJ

“BAGELS & BOOKS”

Monday, March 18 BOOK SELECTION:

The German Girl

Set against the backdrop of World War II, award winning journalist Armando Lucas Correa's The German Girl follows 12-year-old Hannah Rosenthal, who is attempting to flee Nazi Germany with her family and her best friend, Leo Martin. After many refusals, the Rosenths are overjoyed when they are given the chance to escape to freedom aboard the SS St. Louis, a floating fairy tale making its way toward Cuba. But the outlook soon becomes grimmer for the desperate family.

Monday, March 18 noon - 2:00 p.m.

Alex Aidekman Family Jewish Community Campus

901 Route 10, Whippany, NJ 07981

Please RSVP to holocaustcouncil@jfedgmw.org or (973) 929-3194 For Directions www.jfedgmw.org/directions

Building an inclusive community is a priority.
Contact us and we will make every effort to meet your needs.

