Yonia Fain: With Pen and Paintbrush

In the film Yonia Fain: With Pen and Paintbrush, the noted Yiddish writer and painter talks about his fascinating life. He discusses life in Vilna before the war, his political activism in Warsaw, his years as a refugee in Shanghai, his relationship with Diego Rivera in Mexico, and his career as an art professor and writer in New York.

A number of Fain's paintings were donated to the Holocaust Council by Hofstra University.

In Yiddish with English subtitles
