This journey is about Legacy...yours, mine, ours. It is about the ways in which we transmit important things to our children and grandchildren. It is about the things we say or do to ensure we leave a rich and meaningful Legacy...one that will live long after we are gone. We hope you will join us on an experience that will shape the Legacy you choose to leave...after learning about the Legacies of others.

Day 1

All roads lead to Jerusalem.

Arrive at the newly renovated Inbal hotel in Jerusalem and celebrate your community with a cocktail reception and welcome dinner.

Day 2

Explore ancient and the modern times in Jerusalem.

Choose your journey. First time visitors will have the opportunity to see the classic sites of Jerusalem, including the Old City, Tower of David, Western Wall and Mount Hertzl. Others may choose to learn about the security fence, a JDC initiative in an east Jerusalem neighborhood and the Israel Action Network's efforts with regard to Israeli-Palestinian peace talks throughout the years.

In the evening, everyone will enjoy the famed Machane Yehuda market as it comes to life, filled with vibrant restaurants, patronized by a colorful makeup of local Jerusalemites from all walks of life.

Day 3

See the sides of Jerusalem that most don't see.

Visit a Jerusalem-based innovation leader. Travel south to the Gush Etzion settlement bloc, the largest concentration of Jewish settlements in Judea and Samaria (the West Bank).

Visit the community of Efrat, and learn about the nuances and challenges of life beyond the Green Line. Then, as the sun begins to set, head for the Kotel for some private time at the Wall to usher in the spirit of Shabbat. Follow with by a spirited Kabbalat Shabbat service led by your community rabbis and a group Shabbat dinner.

Day 4

Experience Shabbat in the center of three faiths.

Attend morning services at a nearby synagogue and experience the peace of Shabbat. Or, embark on optional walking tours:

Yemin Moshe. The first Jewish neighborhood to be established in the modern-era outside the walls of the Old City. This picturesque area, founded by Moshe Montefiore in the 19th century, has seen its fair share of the tumultuous modern history of the city, as it lies on the seam between East and West.

Old City. Explore the Old City of Jerusalem on a special tour that will provide introspective exposure to many of this walled city's historical and cultural anchors, including a visit to the Western Wall (Kotel).

Yehuda Amichai's Jerusalem. Study the poetry of poet Yehuda Amichai with walk through the neighborhoods in which he lived and wrote. This walking tour combines text, poetry and sites, to get deep under the skin of the city. As you read his poems in the places in which they are set, you will gain a deeper understanding of the history of Jerusalem, the people of the City, and the life of Yehuda Amichai who is widely considered to be Israel's greatest modern poet.

Visit to HUC or Fuchsburg.

Afternoon learning session. Come learn from your community rabbis.

As Shabbat ends, gather for Seudat Shlishit and Havdalah with the community. Later, relax or: See the Night Spectacular sound and light show at the Tower of David Museum, located in the Old City. Utilizing the dramatic backdrop of the Tower of David Citadel as a canvas, watch and hear this one of a kind high-tech performance as it brings to life the ancient city of Jerusalem in all its historical periods and glory. Explore the famous Western Wall Tunnels, stretching under the homes of the Muslim Quarter and making their way along the entire length of the Temple Mount.

Experience an exhilarating night bike ride of Jerusalem. See the sights and sounds of both modern Jerusalem and the Old City after its residents have gone to sleep!
