Encountering Jewish Culture: through Stories, Poetry & Art: 2019 – Part I

JEWISH AMERICAN LITERATURE -
Selected stories thru time -continued

We will read and discuss selections of Jewish American Writing from 350 years. Our book spans from 1645 to the present, including —fiction, poetry, drama, essays, letters, editorials, journals. Do these Jews writing in America make up a literary tradition? If so what defines that tradition? Invite friends to join in discussions; or give contact info to Esther Hexter. Everyone is welcome to join our conversation. No prerequisite, only desire to learn.
