Deepen Your Jewish Journey

A Jewish Federation of Greater Portland Initiative

WINTER/SPRING 2026 CATALOG

Jewish Federation of Greater Portland

Root & Branch is a new initiative of the Jewish Federation of Greater Portland that offers local adults opportunities to deepen their Jewish journey. Our programs offer an invitation into Jewish life as something to grow into, not something you need to already know.

Across our fall 2025 offerings, over half of attendees were new to the Federation, and many had never engaged in Jewish learning as adults. This reflects both the diversity and vitality of the local Jewish community, and a clear desire for entry points that are welcoming, flexible, and intellectually serious without being intimidating.

Facilitated by Dr. Yosef Rosen, the Federation's Director of Jewish Life and Learning, Root & Branch is designed for adults who are curious, searching, and often juggling full lives. Some participants come with deep Jewish backgrounds, others with fragments, questions, or long pauses in their Jewish journey.

Please browse through our Winter-Spring 2026 catalog and discover which program might offer a meaningful step along your Jewish journey.

UNPARALLELED EDUCATION UNFORGETTABLE EXPERIENCES

MELTON IS A TRUSTED VOICE FOR JEWISH COMMUNITIES AROUND THE WORLD

After a long hiatus, Melton is back in Portland!

Now with more courses, more variability in length (10 session + 6 session long courses), and offered online.

These virtual courses are exclusive to the Greater Portland Area, include an in-person meetup, and are facilitated by Dr. Yosef Rosen.

The Florence Melton School of Adult Jewish Learning offers courses expertly crafted by Hebrew University scholars that stress depth and accessibility—they are designed for you to interact and engage with Judaism on your terms and questions.

Across Jewish history, Jews have asked daring questions:
Can a human encounter the divine directly? Is spiritual experience accessible to all? Are there religious or psychological dangers to the mystical quest?

To explore the answers given to these questions, this lunch & learn series turns to one of Judaism's most mysterious and compelling stories: the Four Who Entered the Pardes. We'll use this legend to map a wider history of Jewish mysticism in Late Antiquity and examine how its insights and warnings might still speak to modern spiritual seekers.

Reset & Refresh

A community-building experience for young couples.

Monday Evenings 2026: April 20, May 4, May 18, June 1, June 8

+ A Shabbat Experience: June 12-13

 REGISTER NOW

Reset & Refresh invites young couples of mixed heritage* into a welcoming Jewish space for self-discovery, rejuvenation, deepening relationships, and building community.

This seven-session program uses Shabbat as a compass to explore Jewish life, deepen relationships, and make meaningful connections with other couples.

*Being mixed heritage includes a myriad of combinations that cross religions, denominations, spiritual practice, race, ethnicity, and backgrounds. Participating couples might include two people who identify as Jewish and have varied Jewish lived experiences and a couple where one member identifies with another religion or is an agnostic, along with many other variations.

Monthly Zohar Study

Zohar & Zhug

Join for mystical learning and delicious spicy zhug (a yemenite hot sauce). This will be a monthly program! Free to attend. Please RSVP.

Once a month, on Thursday night, join us as we study passages of the Zohar (in English), the classic work of Jewish mysticism, and savor the flavors of zhoug—a fiery, fragrant Yemenite schmear—on crackers, to add a bit of heat and joy to our conversations.

Whether you're well-versed in Kabbalah or just curious to taste these mystical texts (and the zhoug), you're warmly invited.

Step through the welcoming doors of Leikam Brewing for a new semester of Jewish Magic School.

In this three-session adventure into the witchier parts of Judaism, we'll learn about dream interpretation, angels, and the art of amulets.

Each 90-minute workshop combines an historical overview of the topic with an exploration of its contemporary expressions. No wands or Jewish knowledge required.

Come for all three or drop-in as your schedule allows.

A Day of JEWISH RENAISSANCE

A Day of Jewish Renaissance

June 21, 2026, 10am-6pm

Eastside Jewish Commons

REGISTRATION COMING SOON!

A Day of Jewish Renaissance is a full day of choose-your-own Jewish adventure, featuring the best of Portland's local Jewish teachers, artists, and creative voices. A collaboration between the Federation and Art/Lab, this festival brings Jewish learning, Jewish art-making, and Jewish community into the same space.

Across four time slots, you'll be able to pick from four different offerings each round: art workshops, two learning options, and one experiential option, such as a cooking class, movement, singing, etc.

Attend a lecture, join a hands-on arts workshop, take a cooking class, or pause to schmooze; come for what draws you, skip what doesn't, and leave recharged and inspired.
