

Log on and join us for a virtual film screening of:

SHARED LEGACIES

The African American-Jewish Civil Rights Alliance

This feature length documentary focuses on a proud chapter in modern American history when two communities of different backgrounds — African Americans and Jews — collaborated to transform the moral conscience of the nation. The powerful lessons of this crucial history must be remembered. For too many people today, this history of coming together has never been shared nor heard.

Watch the Shared Legacies trailer here

"If the lion does not tell his story, the hunter will."
~ African Proverb

Screen the film from home on Sunday, September 13 and Monday, September 14.

Join the Zoom discussion on Wednesday, September 16 at 7pm with the filmmaker Dr. Shari Rogers; Reverend E.D. Mondainé, board president of the Portland Chapter of NAACP; and Rabbi Michael Cahana, senior rabbi of Congregation Beth Israel.

Both the film and discussion are FREE but registration is required.

Register here

Co-sponsored by United in Spirit, a collaboration between the Jewish Federation of Greater Portland, the Portland Chapter of NAACP, the Oregon Jewish Museum and Center for Holocaust Education and Dialogues Unlimited.

More upcoming United in Spirit programming:

Uncovering the Hidden History of Anti-Black Racism in Oregon

with guest speaker Walidah Imarisha

October 6, at 7pm

For this program, register here