JEWISH FEDERATION OF CINCINNATI PRAISES RESOLUTION PASSED BY CINCINNATI CITY COUNCIL

Cincinnati — The Jewish Federation of Cincinnati, along with our public affairs arm, the Jewish Community Relations Council, endorses the ceasefire resolution authored by Cincinnati City Councilmember Anna Albi.

This resolution's wording unites rather than divides us. It reflects the Jewish community's aspiration—shared by numerous Cincinnati residents—that considerate and steadfast negotiation will lead to peace for Israelis and Palestinians alike.

When we approached the Cincinnati City Council last month, over 175 members from our community, covering a wide spectrum from college students to octogenarians, made our message loud and clear: We want to see peace.

The negotiations in Cairo, together with Councilmember Albi's ceasefire resolution, guide us toward our shared goal. The pursuit of a six-week ceasefire, the secure return of all hostages, and the provision of urgently needed aid are crucial steps. Furthermore, these actions symbolize our hope to mend relations between our Jewish and Muslim communities in Cincinnati, advancing us toward lasting peace that benefits all, including Israelis, Palestinians, and Cincinnatians alike.

Together, we stand for peace.

About the Jewish Federation of Cincinnati

The Jewish Federation of Cincinnati envisions an exceptional Cincinnati Jewish community and, through the community-wide strategic plan Cincinnati 2030, brings diverse groups together to build it. We raise money and use a volunteer-driven, transparent process to distribute it to the local, national, and global programs that need it most. We connect our community agencies with the leaders and expertise they need to thrive. And we work to protect Jewish security by educating the community and advocating for Israel. We do all of this to help people in need, create an engaged community, assure our Jewish future, and support the Jewish people in Cincinnati, in Israel, and throughout the world. About the Jewish Community Relations Council

The Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC) is the non-partisan public affairs arm of the Jewish Federation of Cincinnati. Its mission is to protect Jewish security, recognizing that Jewish security depends on a just society for all. To achieve this mission, it advocates for the local Jewish community through Israel education; fighting antisemitism, discrimination, and racism; and building understanding with other ethnic, religious, and civic organizations.
