

Jewish Federation honors major donors

The Jewish Federation of Cincinnati honored its Major Gifts donors at a dinner at the Mayerson JCC. Co-chairs were Debbie and Jody Brant and Sally and Marty Hiudt. Funds raised through the Federation's annual Community Campaign go to local and global Jewish agencies that help people in need, create an engaged community, assure our Jewish future, and support the Jewish people in Cincinnati, in Israel, and throughout the world.

Mayerson JCC celebrates its year

CEO Marc Fisher shared plans for the coming fiscal year during the Mayerson JCC's annual meeting.

Significant successes of the past year were highlighted, including record attendance at cultural arts programming, a growing Early Childhood School, thriving Senior Department and many improvements to the facility. Past JCC board president Debbie Brant was recognized for her years of service, as new president Todd Schild was welcomed.

Someone is interested in buying your business.

Me.

My name is Jim Walker. If any two of the following sound familiar, we should probably be talking.

- $2-6M in annual sales
- Not a "traditional" retail business or restaurant
- You're thinking about retiring, or have just divorced, or have health concerns
- Business is profitable with positive cash flow that sustains ongoing operations

We have the experience, assets, and reliable channels in place to make selling your business easy and profitable, while keeping key personnel in place. I invite you to call me directly at the number below, and assure you there will be no hard-pressure sales tactics, obligations, or pesky follow up calls. Just a sincere, confidential, fact-finding conversation. I look forward to speaking with you.
