Jewish Community Relations Council's Statement on the U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights Resolution of Complaint Against the University of Cincinnati

Cincinnati — The U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights findings regarding allegations of harassment and discrimination against Jewish students at the University of Cincinnati highlight the urgent need to address antisemitism on campus. As the public affairs arm of the Jewish Federation of Cincinnati, the Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC) has been aware of many of these incidents and has proactively engaged with UC to express our concerns and advocate for change. We are encouraged by the university's commitment to addressing these issues through the resolution agreement, which represents an important step toward fostering a more inclusive and safer campus environment. JCRC remains dedicated to working collaboratively with UC to ensure sustained progress, as no student should ever feel unsafe due to their religious, cultural, or racial identity.

About the Jewish Federation of Cincinnati

The Jewish Federation of Cincinnati envisions an exceptional Cincinnati Jewish community and, through the community-wide strategic plan Cincinnati 2030, brings diverse groups together to build it. We raise money and use a volunteer-driven, transparent process to distribute it to the local, national, and global programs that need it most. We connect our community agencies with the leaders and expertise they need to thrive. And we work to protect Jewish security by educating the community and advocating for Israel. We do all of this to help people in need, create an engaged community, assure our Jewish future, and support the Jewish people in Cincinnati, in Israel, and throughout the world. About the Jewish Community Relations Council

The Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC) is the non-partisan public affairs arm of the Jewish Federation of Cincinnati. Its mission is to protect Jewish security, recognizing that Jewish security depends on a just society for all. To achieve this mission, it advocates for the local Jewish community through Israel education; fighting antisemitism, discrimination, and racism; and building understanding with other ethnic, religious, and civic organizations.
