About the Jewish Federation and its Agencies

Jewish Federation of Greater Indianapolis (JFGI)

The Jewish Federation of Greater Indianapolis serves as the central philanthropic and Jewish engagement hub for Greater Indianapolis. JFGI supports Jewish life in Indianapolis, Israel, and around the world thanks to the support of donors to the Annual Campaign, Endowment, and special programs. JFGI works with partners in the community to create a vibrant network of people, agencies, programs, and services that maintain and strengthen our community and support Jews worldwide. An intern at JFGI could pursue their interests in any of the following fields: development/fundraising, marketing/communications, finance/accounting, database management, or programming/engagement. For more information, visit www.jewishindianapolis.org.

Jewish Family Services (JFS)

Jewish Family Service at The Albert and Sara Reuben Senior & Community Resource Center is the Jewish community's central planning and coordinating entity for a variety of social services. JFS offers a continuum of multi-generational services that enhance the health, well-being, and dignity of families and older adults in our local community. Services are available to people directly or through a network of community agencies dedicated to the needs of each client, regardless of religion, race, nationality, ethnic group, or income level. For more information, visit www.jewishindianapolis.org/jfs.

Hooverwood Living

Originally established as the Jewish Shelter House in 1902 and later the Borinstein Home in 1929, Hooverwood Living offers care and services to elderly members of our community. Hooverwood Living is a nationally-recognized and respected skilled nursing facility, specializing in rehabilitation, dementia care, and adult day services. For more information, visit www.hooverwood.org.

Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC)

The Indianapolis JCRC was established in 1942 as the public affairs and community relations arm of the organized Jewish community. The JCRC works to build consensus on public affairs issues and translate these positions into community action with the broader community, public officials, and other faith and ethnic communities. JCRC's mission is to safeguard Jews in the U.S., in Israel, and around the world by combating antisemitism through relationship-building and education. For more information visit www.indyjcrc.org.

Jewish Community Center of Indianapolis (JCC)

The JCC of Indianapolis, guided by Jewish values and traditions, provides inclusive experiences that lead to personal growth and community building. At the JCC, you will find cultural arts programs, fitness classes and facilities, youth and adult sports, a kosher cafe, early childhood education, afterschool care, summer day camp, a water park, and more. For more information, visit www.jccindy.org.
