Advertising Rate Sheet – 2026

WHO WE ARE

Introduce your message to well-educated homeowners and professionals with high discretionary income and buying power.

The Jewish Federation News magazine is a full color bimonthly publication delivered to 5,000 households in the Greater Indianapolis area. It is also made available to the more than 24,000 people that annually visit the Max & Maw Simon Jewish Community Campus.

The Jewish Federation News magazine is a contemporary and accessible source of information, news, events, vital services, and public announcements for the Federation, its agencies, synagogues, local Jewish organizations, and national and international partners.

It is THE place for information about upcoming community events. Your business or organization will benefit greatly from placing an ad in the Jewish Federation News magazine.

In addition to the printed magazine, the Jewish Federation News magazine is also published online. Each issue is available on our social media handles and is on the website jewishindianapolis.org for several years, lengthening your exposure to the community and potential customers.
