“Iraqi Jews – The Untold Story: A Personal History”

Dina David

Dina David, born to Iraqi immigrants in Israel, traces the history of Jews in Iraq and in particular her family’s life in Baghdad. Her talk focuses on Iraqi Jews’ long and illustrious history in Iraq, including the formulation of the Talmud, the 1941 “farhud” (pogrom), and the collapse of the old Jewish community which led to the final immigration to Israel in the 50s. Her personal story will include her family’s life in Israel and will touch on her life both in Israel and America.

Iraqi dessert will be served, as well as coffee and tea.

Open to the community. Free of Charge. Donations are always welcome!
