Adventures For All Abilities
Planning some time off this summer? Waypoint Adventures offers activities that are fun for all. Waypoint’s vision is that all people, regardless of ability, will have opportunities for adventure, and through them realize their personal value, strengths and abilities. Waypoint Adventure helps to make programs accessible through a variety of cognitive and physical supports including: differentiated instruction, off-road wheelchairs, skit-skis, adaptive kayaks and adaptive rock climbing harnesses and ascending systems. Find your next adventure at waypointadventure.org.

Ruderman Inclusion Summit
The Ruderman Family Foundation will hold its first Ruderman Inclusion Summit on November 1 and 2, 2015 in Boston, MA.
The Ruderman Inclusion Summit will bring together all stakeholders in our community to foster strategic advocacy and awareness, peer to peer learning, best practice, networking and more.
The Summit will feature leaders in the field, speaking and engaging with attendees on the critical issues of education, housing, employment, community and religious life.
