Ruderman Family Foundation-Best in Business
The Ruderman Best in Business Award shines a spotlight on 10 North American businesses leading the way with their inclusive hiring practices. Like our Transitions to Work employers, these businesses are proving that hiring people with disabilities is good for the bottom line and showing that gaining a competitive edge means employing the best people available. Meet the Ruderman “Best in Business” recipients. Because everyone has the right to meaningful employment.

Transitions Alumni Connections
Transitions to Work hosted its third Alumni Connection events on June 9th. The group enjoyed an evening of pizza, bowling and prizes at South Boston Candlepin Bowling. It was a great way for graduates from different class sections to connect, share experiences and get to know each other. Look for news on our next outing in the fall.

Transitions to Work continues to connect with new employers to educate on inclusive hiring and build employer partnerships. Please let us know if you or someone you know might be interested in exploring Transitions to Work as a fit for your or their company. We appreciate the leadership of our employer partners in hiring individuals of all abilities for employment opportunities. Please support these companies and spread the word by joining Transitions to Work on Facebook at www.facebook.com/transitionstoworkboston. To learn more about Transitions to Work or view inclusive hiring tools, please visit: www.cjp.org/transitionstowork.