Pick-up/Drop-off Instructions for School Groups Arriving by Bus

As of October 2017, the Sherman campus is undergoing construction and unfortunately there is no allocated space for buses to park onsite in the interim. Please read the attached document as there is no longer a drop-off point on campus. Buses will be able to offload on Carscadden Drive (directly off of Bathurst), just north of the Holocaust Education Centre, and visitors will proceed on foot, south to 4600 Bathurst Street, one half-block from the traffic light. Please buzz Security on the intercom to enter. Since there is no designated spot on site for bus parking we suggest that school buses wait opposite Carscadden Drive (on the other side of Bathurst) on Eglinton Avenue in front of the park. Buses can also wait at the plaza at Finch and Bathurst or at Sheppard and Bathurst, and can return to Carscadden Dr. to pick up the group. Thank you for your patience and understanding during this time.

Students can walk down the hill to the Holocaust Education Centre's entrance on the West side of Bathurst St.

Buses can meet their group on Carscadden Dr. at the end of the visit.

Thank you for your patience and understanding during this time.

Students must remain in the museum and its immediate vicinity and may not congregate in the Lipa Green lower lobby.

Buses will not be permitted to enter past the Sherman Campus Security.
