A Message From Wendy Cedar, Executive Director and Rissa Cutler, President

Join us in empowering women to lead, support, and advocate for flourishing Jewish communities around the world by taking part in National Women's Philanthropy (NWP), a program of Jewish Federations of North America (JFNA). Through the power of collective action via their annual gifts, these women support those in need, ensure the continuity of Jewish life and build bridges of understanding and compassion. They support local, national and international programs that fight antisemitism, provide advocacy and community relations, and engage and empower women philanthropists.

You can be united with these philanthropic women through a powerful web of over 20,000 Lions of Judah, a worldwide network that transforms the landscape of Jewish philanthropy and leadership. Founded in 1972, the Lion of Judah has become an international symbol of strength, sisterhood, and an unwavering commitment to the global Jewish community. Lions of Judah give millions annually for critical Jewish causes, through their local Jewish Federations and the international campaigns of NWP.

Lions of Judah become Legacy Donors if they create a Lion of Judah Endowment, which ensures vital community support continues for generations. These gifts can be made through bequests, retirement funds, or life insurance policies, with a $100,000 minimum.

The Jewish Federation of Greater Orange County has been blessed with two recent Living Legacy Donors; Carol Levine and Raena Korenman. These two passionate women have given so much of themselves to help support the work our local Federation.

Carol is an active member of our Endowment Committee and helps make decisions related to growing our Endowment portfolio. She has also been part of two endowments to our local community; one with her late husband Harold z'l, which provides annual funding for scholarships to teens who participate in tours of Israel, and one of her parents, Jack & Jessica Blinkoff, which provides a 100% annual scholarship to one student participating in an Israel tour.

Raena is a Past President of our Federation and has remained active as an Honorary Board member until her recent move out of the region. She served as our liaison to JFNA's national board, on our Allocations, Endowment, Life & Legacy, and Jewish Orange Youth Committees, and so much more over the decades! Raena supported the work of our local NWP with programming and events, helped impassion other women to give a Dollar-A-Day to help support our important work, and holds an Endowment which will continue to provide us with support in perpetuity.

We are so grateful for these passionate women and their ongoing commitment to the work of supporting Jewish life in Orange County and beyond.

A Message From Wendy Cedar, Executive Director and Rissa Cutler, President continued,,,,,

If you would like to join them in this sustaining work with a Dollar-A-Day, a Lion of Judah annual gift, or by creating a legacy to ensure the future of our work, contact us to find out how. You can also make gifts in their honor to our annual campaign or directly to their endowments.

The Harold Levine Named Endowment Fund Program

The Harold Levine Endowment Program of the Jewish Federation of Greater Orange County currently has 65 Endowments with a principle of over $5,000,000. These funds can be established with any amount of money. The interest is reinvested in the funds until they reach a corpus of $5,000, at which time distributions can be made to named charities.

All endowment funds must designate a minimum of 30% of the interest earned to the Jewish Federation Annual Campaign. Arrange a confidential meeting to make a charitable gift as part of your estate plan. Call the Federation office 845-562-7860 for more information.

TU BI'SHVAT 2026

Torah tells us that Gd is the master of the universe.

He created the world. Torah also tells us that human beings were appointed masters of the earth. We are partners with Gd in maintaining the precious gift and are sanctioned to enhance the world with Tikkun Olam. What kind of world managers are we? Each of us must search their hearts to assess and follow up.

However, we do get some guidelines. We have the holiday of Tu Bi'Shvat.

The 15th of Shevat was established by the school of Hillel, about 200 C.E. as the New Year for Trees, as discussed in the Mishnah.

As we, in New York, are enjoying the vast white vista of knee-deep snow, Israel is preparing for spring. The Nachlieli bird (Wagtail) should be bopping its long tail up and down in the gardens of Israel. Perhaps the almond tree is blooming throughout the land. I remember being a child in Israel anxiously awaiting to see the Wagtail and the blooms of the almond tree.

They brought joy to me and many Israeli children who spent the rainy winter months anticipating the new season, going out in the fields to pick red kalaniyot (anemones) and pink rakafot (cyclamens), greet the snails up close to the nose, try to walk barefoot on the cold muddy soil and perhaps climb a tree.

The custom in Israel of my childhood was to plant new trees on Tu Bi'Shvat and remember the benefits and sustenance they offer to humanity. Torah likens humans to trees and celebrates the comparison. We stand proud, well-rooted and aware of our potential.

Tu Bi'Shvat also reminds us of the commandment Bal Tashchit. בַּל תַּשְׁחִית

Bal Tashchit means DO NOT DESTROY, and it originates from Deuteronomy 20:19-20. Although in this verse we are prohibited from destroying fruit-bearing trees during a siege, rabbis later expanded this law into a general prohibition against any reckless waste or destruction of resources.

Tu Bi'Shvat should mean create, renew, replenish- don't destroy. Tu Bi'Shvat demands respect for the beautiful world we live in and stresses our responsibility. Plant trees. Wherever you are in the world, plant a tree. Like the wise Tzadik Honi HaMe'agel did, let's do it for the next generations. After all, our predecessors planted trees for us. That should make us responsible and respectful managers of our world.

My daughter Tami painted this (using mixture of paint and embroidery). I have been using this for Tu Bi'Shvat every year.

Hebrew Reading classes

Mondays taught by Cantor Carl Sayres in the conference room.
If you need to join virtually, you may click on this Zoom link:
Hebrew Reading Class
You might need to enter a password to join virtually.
The password is CAI1

- ✧ 10am - Level 1 - We'll teach everything starting with the Aleph Bet. No experience reading Hebrew is assumed. And we'll tie everything we're learning in with the siddur. Our goal is to make reading and singing the siddur comfortable and friendly.
- ✧ 11am - Level 2 - So you learned to read Hebrew once upon time, and you need a refresher. We'll review everything, and work on reading and singing from the Siddur.
- ✧ 1pm - Level 3 - You're comfortable reading Hebrew, but there's always more to learn! Let's practice what you know, and build your skills.

JOIN US AS WE EXPLORE

Pathways Through the Siddur

Back for its second year, this popular class examines different prayers from the Siddur exploring the meaning of the text, its history, the role it plays in the service, and any laws and customs which accompany it.

Best of all, the students are encouraged to nominate the t'filot (prayers) which they would like to see explored in future classes!

Hebrew skills are not required, and each class will be self-contained, so there's no need to attend the entire series if you are unable.

PATHWAYS THROUGH THE SIDDUR will be held via Zoom on Thursday evenings at 7pm on the following dates:

February 8th | March 8th
April 16th | May 14th

Please contact the Temple Sinai office at eparker@templesinainmiddletown.com or Rabbi/Hazzan Sislen at rabbis@templesinainmiddletown.com for more information or to receive the Zoom link.
