Joyce Mizrachi was born 1941 in Rivesaltes Transit Camp, France. Joyce's family was interned by the Vichy regime along with 8000 other Jews and "undesirable refugee" prisoners. 3,000 of whom were children separated from their mothers. Thousands of Jews were shipped from Rivesaltes to Auschwitz. Joyce's Mother, Father, her brother Andre Zalc, and sister Lucie Ragin, escaped from Rivesaltes camp without her. Later, the Red Cross reunited the family
