

Albert Wisner Library and the Jewish Federation of Orange County present:

THE MANY FACETS OF JUDAISM IN ORANGE COUNTY

Diversity and inclusion built the United States. Despite recent reports that political polarization is tearing at that fabric, we have been here before, and we will get through this together.

In Orange County there is no less of a need for mutual understanding that can come through knowledge and respect. We have as our objective, creating a dialogue to increase inter-religious understanding illuminate the various denominations and facets of Judaism

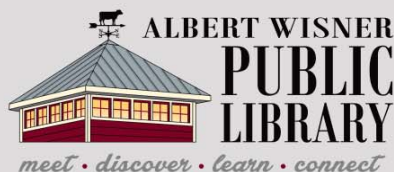

The panelists (including a Jewish clergy from the Reform, Conservative, Hasidic, Modern Orthodox and Chabad movements) will share their tradition, its central tenets, and how it differs from other Jewish ways of being. In addition, a scholar who provides a Biblically historical perspective will broaden our view with developmental milestones of Jewish thought.
