

Hand in Hand

Center for Jewish-Arab Education in Israel

www.handinhandk12.org/

Building a Shared Society: Integrated Arab & Jewish Schools in Israel

Sunday, April 8 • 3:00 p.m.

St. Clare of Assisi Episcopal Church / Temple Beth Emeth 2309 Packard, Ann Arbor

Speakers:

Noa Yammer

Noa is an American-born educator and musician. She leads International Engagement and Communications at Hand in Hand, sharing the Hand in Hand story with supporters in Israel and around the world in visits, workshops, and online.

Alma Saporta & Vicky Makhoul

Alma (Jewish) and Vicky (Arab) met in 2005 in first grade and have been friends ever since. They are 2017 graduates of the Hand and Hand School in Jerusalem and are interested in art, science, and social change.

3:00 - 4:30 p.m. "Building a Shared Society" Presentation

4:30 - 5:00 p.m. Meet the Speakers Reception

For More Information Contact:

Don Redding • dredding58@yahoo.com • (734) 276-8426

This event is sponsored by the Michigan Friends of Hand in Hand.

Co-sponsors: First Presbyterian Church, Ann Arbor • Hillel • Temple Beth Emeth Social Action Committee • Ann Arbor Unitarian Universalists for Justice in the Middle East • St. Clare's Episcopal Church • Zeitouna • Social Action Committee of Beth Israel Congregation • Jewish Federation of Greater Ann Arbor • Ann Arbor Reconstructionist Congregation