Aaron Stuminger

Aaron Struminger is currently an Assistant Professor at Eastern Michigan University. Aaron is originally from Memphis, TN where he began his engagement with the Jewish community as a leader in both USY and BBYO. Through his education at University of Delaware, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and University of Florida, Aaron has maintained his Jewish identity and become interested in connecting a younger generation into Jewish life. While he has only lived here for one year, the Ann Arbor Jewish community has made an impact on him. He looks forward to serving that community as a member of the Jewish Young Professionals board. In addition to his work with the Jewish community, Aaron enjoys sports, the outdoors, and getting to know Ann Arbor.

Ilana Wornoff

Hi! My name is Ilana Woronoff and I am 24 years old. Originally from West Bloomfield (metro Detroit), I am enjoying getting to know Ann Arbor with all of its one-way streets and great breakfast restaurants. Prior to graduate school, I graduated from Michigan State University with a degree in Human Development and Family Studies with a minor in Jewish studies. After leaving East Lansing, I completed a one-year service term as an AmeriCorps VISTA at South Oakland Shelter in Lathrup Village. Currently, I am getting ready to begin my second year as a Masters of Social Work student (Interpersonal Practice in Children and Youth in Family and Society) at the University of Michigan. I'm excited to continue exploring Ann Arbor with my JYP friends!

Fun fact about me: Menchie's Frozen Yogurt is my favorite froyo place! Haven't been-I am always willing to go!
