

Co-Chairs

Marni Jacobson

Marni is originally from West Bloomfield, is the youngest of four kids, and enjoys spending her summers on Skeleton Lake at Camp Ramah in Canada. When she finally decided to venture out of her Bloomfield bubble, she came to Ann Arbor to start school at the University of Michigan. She spent her four years of college studying nursing and fell in love with Ann Arbor so decided to stay and is now a pediatric nurse at Mott Children's Hospital.

When she's not at the hospital, Marni can be found FaceTiming with her niece, at a yoga class, napping on her couch, cheering on Michigan football, brunching, or at happy hour drinking sangria. If you're an avid cold brew drinker or want to taste the best homemade chocolate chip cookies in town, give her a call!

Sarah Klein

Sarah Klein is elated to be a Co Chair of JYP! Sarah is currently working as Program Director of Beth Israel Congregation in Ann Arbor, Michigan to prepare for rabbinical school. At Beth Israel, Sarah is responsible for all programming from tots to seniors, Shabbat programming, the Madrichim Service Learning Program, and more! Sarah graduated about a year ago from Michigan State University with a B.A. in Psychology and a Minor in Jewish Studies. She currently lives in West Bloomfield, Michigan where she was born and raised. In her spare time, Sarah enjoys cooking Tasty videos, exploring downtown Detroit, walking her dogs, and playing the double bass in a community symphony.
