

Jill Deutch

Jewish Federation of South Palm Beach County

Jill Deutch and her family have lived in Boca Raton since 1998. Jill has an undergraduate degree from the University of Michigan and graduate degrees from Baltimore Hebrew University (MA in Jewish Studies) and University of Maryland (MSW in Community Organization). She also received a certificate in Jewish Communal Studies from the Baltimore Institute for Jewish Communal Service. Jill was a Wexner Graduate Fellow and a recipient of the FEREP (Federation Executive Recruitment Program) award. Additionally, she completed the Boca Raton Wexner Heritage program in 2009. Professionally, she has served as the Director of Development for Hillel of Broward and Palm Beach since 2008. Jill has been a long-time community volunteer with the Jewish Federation of South Palm Beach County, holding several leadership positions, and has served on the The FAU Phyllis and Harvey Sandler School of Social Work Community Advisory Board since its inception. She is married to Congressman Ted Deutch and they have three children; Gabrielle, Serena and Cole.