

ASSESSING THE UKRAINE CRISIS RESPONSE: A SERIES OF BLOG POSTS PROVIDING RICH INFORMATION ABOUT JEWISH FEDERATIONS' COLLECTIVE ALLOCATIONS

1. JEWISH FEDERATIONS' INVESTMENTS BEFORE THE UKRAINE CRISIS AND FUNDRAISING AND ALLOCATIONS DURING THE CRISIS (MAY 17, 2022)

The quickly evolving situation in Ukraine and surrounding countries and the many humanitarian organizations responding to the crisis pose a challenge for individual and institutional donors seeking to maximize their impact in helping people harmed by the war. This post, and future posts, aim to provide useful information to Jewish Federation communities, current and prospective individual donors, foundations, and others.

Click here to read the full post

2. IMPACT OF INITIAL JEWISH FEDERATIONS' COLLECTIVE ALLOCATIONS FOR UKRAINE (MAY 30, 2022)

This post details the collective impact of Jewish Federations' emergency allocations.

A. Reviewing the Response by Impact Areas

Distributions of funds can be divided into four main impact areas:

- Refugee Assistance/Humanitarian Relief and Resettlement
- Aliyah and the Welcoming of Refugees to Israel
- Addressing Needs of Jews in in Other Countries of the Former Soviet Union Affected by the Conflict
- Rebuilding Jewish life in Ukraine

Currently, funding focuses on the first two categories. It is anticipated that the third category may become a developing need and that rebuilding Jewish life in Ukraine will be a focus of a later stage.

Click here to read the full post

3. THE LIFESAVING WORK OF FEDERATIONS' CORE HISTORIC PARTNERS (JUNE 23, 2022)

Jewish Federations were prepared to respond immediately and effectively to the crisis in Ukraine because we were on the ground in Ukraine and surrounding countries before the crisis through the work of our core historic partners.

For decades, Jewish Federations have supported the work of The Jewish Agency for Israel, American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC), and World ORT in the Former Soviet Union and Eastern Europe to revitalize Jewish life, care for the elderly and disabled, and facilitate the Aliyah of those who chose to move to Israel.

In providing in-depth information about the Ukraine crisis response by Jewish Federations' core historic partners, this post tells the story of how their deep knowledge, expertise, relationships, and professional and volunteer resources have enabled them to rescue and care for refugees starting as soon as the crisis began.

Click here to read the full post

4. JEWISH FEDERATIONS SAVING LIVES IN UKRAINE – PROFILING THE WORK OF 10 GRANTEES (JULY 28, 2022)

This post provides detailed information on the Ukraine crisis response activities of 10 organizations receiving Federations' collective allocations.

The Jewish Agency and JDC responded immediately to the crisis utilizing the infrastructure – experience, expertise, and relationships on the ground in Ukraine and surrounding countries – enabled by Jewish Federations' core funding year in and year out through annual campaigns.

The response of the 10 organizations profiled in this post generally was different.

Click here to read the full post