20TH

MARYLAND JEWISH ADVOCACY DAY, SPONSORED BY BALTIMORE JEWISH COUNCIL, JCRC OF GREATER WASHINGTON AND JEWISH FEDERATION OF HOWARD COUNTY | 4:30 P.M. - 8:00 P.M. | MILLER SENATE OFFICE BUILDING, ANNAPOLIS, MD

Maryland Jewish Advocacy Day is less than one month away! Join us in Annapolis to advocate directly to your representatives about the issues most important to the Jewish Community. Bus transportation is available from Chizuk Amuno Congregation in Baltimore to Annapolis and back. Bus tickets cost $10 per person. The deadline to register is February 10, so that we can assign each participant to a meeting with one of their state legislators. Be sure to register!

BALTIMORE ZIONIST DISTRICT PRESENTS: BEGINNER HEBREW CLASSES | 9:30 A.M. - 10:30 A.M. & 10:45 A.M. - 11:45 A.M. | 104 CHURCH LANE, SUITE 130

Interested in learning Hebrew? This class is perfect for you if you're completely new to the language and you want to get the basics down to start reading, writing, and speaking Hebrew. From day one, you'll be engaging in conversation with your instructor and your classmates. This will prepare you to feel confident and comfortable when speaking with natives, traveling to Israel, or helping your children/grandchildren with their homework. Classes start February 24th. Cost: $136 for nine classes. (Additional fees for books and materials may be required).
