Frank Luntz Lecture

Congratulations to BJC
staffer Madeline Suggs
on the birth of her daughter, Nora, last month! We miss having her with us, and look forward to her return in mid-March after enjoying time with her baby.

Council Matters

JANUARY 2018

Welcome, Zahava Klein!

The BJC welcomes the newest member to our team, Zahava Klein, Director of Israel and Jewish Advocacy. Zahava will be coordinating the Leadership Development Program, as well as working within the Baltimore community to advocate for Jewish and Israel-related issues. Prior to joining the BJC, Zahava worked as the Membership Coordinator for the Association of Jewish Family and Children's Agencies and as the Program Coordinator for YACHAD/NJCD, where she focused on programming and advocating for individuals with special needs. Zahava is a graduate of the University of Baltimore with a Master's in Public Administration.

Legislative Breakfast

Maryland legislators joined us at our Pre-Session Legislative Breakfast to meet with community members and discuss the top issues of the 2018 General Assembly. Thank you to all the delegates and senators who attended!

Hannukah Brew Ha Ha

BJC staffers Sarah Mersky and Noah Mitchel had a great time hosting a table at Charm City Tribe's Hanukkah Brew Ha Ha. Thanks to everyone who stopped by!

ECYP Applications Now Open!

The Elijah Cummings Youth Program is accepting applications for current sophomores living or attending school in Maryland's 7th Congressional District. To refer a potential applicant, visit www.ecyp.org/refer.
