JUNE 2018

BJC Annual Meeting

Join us for our annual meeting as we celebrate our accomplishments of the past year and honor Delegate Adrienne Jones, Delegate Dan Morhaim, and outgoing BJC President Abba David Poliakoff for their service and contributions to our community. We will also welcome in our new Board of Governors and Board of Directors, to be led by incoming President Yehuda Neuberger. The meeting will be held on Monday, June 11 at 5:00 P.M. at Suburban Orthodox Congregation, 7504 Seven Mile Lane.

A Month of Election Politics

The month of May featured two major election education events. On May 16, the BJC partnered with Jews United For Justice to host a Candidates Carnival at the Park Heights JCC. Nearly three dozen candidates for the House of Delegates, State Senate, and County Council came out to meet with constituents in advance of this month's primary. On May 30, the five major Democratic and Republican candidates for Baltimore County Executive joined us at Beth El Congregation for a debate, moderated by the Baltimore Sun's editorial page editor, Andrew Green. Stay tuned for more BJC election education events this fall in advance of the general election.

Interfaith Program Update

Our Interfaith Trialogue Series in April and May brought community members of all faiths, ages, and backgrounds together to talk about issues that affect the whole community. We look forward to continuing these important conversations throughout the year.

The BJC has also been selected to receive a second year of funding from the Samuel I. Rosenberg Endowment Fund. This generous support will allow us to continue to expand our interfaith programs. Thank you to Delegate Rosenberg and his family!

Applications for BJC's Leadership Development Program (LDP) 2018-2019 cohort are now open! Visit baltjc.org/leadership-development for more information and to apply.
