Election 2018 Programs: Meet & Greet and Debate

The BJC is hosting two events this month to help the community learn more about the candidates running for office this primary election season.

We're teaming up with Jews United for Justice for a Candidates Carnival Meet & Greet on Wednesday, May 16, 5:30pm - 7:00pm, at the JCC Park Heights, 5700 Park Heights Avenue. Candidates running for the Maryland Senate and House of Delegates in Districts 11, 40, 41 and 43, as well as the candidates for Baltimore County Council District 2, will be on hand to meet voters and talk about their positions.

Come hear the candidates for Baltimore County Executive debate on Wednesday, May 30 at 7pm, at Beth El Congregation, 8101 Park Heights Avenue. Baltimore Sun opinions editor Andrew Green will be moderating this BJC debate.

Guest Speaker: Frank Luntz

The BJC is honored to have Dr. Frank Luntz, one of America's most honored communications professionals and a frequent commentator in the national media, make a special appearance in Baltimore on Tuesday, May 8, 5pm - 7pm, at Temple Oheb Shalom, 7310 Park Heights Avenue. At this critical time for U.S.-Israeli relations and rising Anti-Semitism around the world, Dr. Luntz will discuss "Israel, BDS and Anti-Semitism: Using the Words that Work."

Memorable Yom HaShoah 2018 Concert

More than 1,200 community members attended our Yom HaShoah 2018 Commemoration at Chizuk Amuno Congregation, which included a moving performance of Verdi's "Requiem" by Bach in Baltimore, featuring the Morgan State University Choir.
